

GYPSY BOOTS

In Bronze, Dull Kid, Midnight Blue and Patent, $4.00, $4.50, $6. Other makes just received, $3.00 and $3.50.

DJ. LUBBY

HOWARD'S

Dry Goods. Milwaukee St. "THE BEST FOR THE LEAST."

Charge accounts are a curse. To the merchant as well as the customer, who use the charge system. It creates extravagance and makes for higher prices. All you have to do is compare our merchandise and CASH Prices with others who do a charge business. It tells its own story.

HANDKERCHIEF SPECIAL.
Ladies fancy Handkerchiefs 10c to 75c.
Ladies colored border Handkerchiefs, 5c and 10c.
Plain all linen Handkerchiefs 5c, 10c, 15c and 25c.
Men's Cotton Handkerchiefs, 5c.
Men's all linen 15c or 2 for 25c.

NEW TAMS.
ONE PRICE CASH STORE.

Piano Owners

Phone me your player piano troubles and be happy. I will tune, repair or rebuild your pianos at reasonable rates. All Work Guaranteed.
Bell phone 1080. Rock Co., White 912.

Geo. T. Packard

Piano Tuner and Player Regulator. Janesville, Wis.
Recommended by all music dealers and leading music houses.

No Need to Buy New Furniture

CHI-NAMEL will make the old look like new—the CHI-NAMEL finish is both handsome and durable—it can wash it with hot water and it will not turn white—dries without brush marks and when once dry never softens or sticks to clothes.

C. W. DIEHL'S

THE ART STORE
26 W. Milw. St.

SEE US FOR FURS
You will find it profitable to visit Reckmeyer's at Milwaukee for your furs, because we can show you the very latest styles in big variety and save you money.

Our big business as manufacturing and importing furriers secures the finest furs for us at a decided advantage in price.

Fashions' best ideas in Women's and Men's fur garments, evening furs, small fur pieces and matched sets, are here.

Reckmeyer's
Furriers and Importers
101 Wisconsin St., Cor. Broadway, Milwaukee

COMMITTEE SCORES

"BIRTH OF A NATION"

NEGROES BRAND PHOTO SPEC-TACLE AS VICIOUS, UNTRUE, DEGRADING TO BLACK.

APPEAL TO COMMISSION

Ask That Film Be Barred From Exhibiting in Janesville as Being Against Humanity's Sake.
—Council May Act.

Attacking the motion picture play, "The Birth of a Nation" in the most bitter words and branding it in most vicious terms as being untrue and against humanity, E. W. Scott, colored, spoke at nearly two hundred people gathered before the city commission, appealing to have the picture barred from this city. A committee of four negroes, consisting of E. W. Scott, J. E. Little, John H. Enlow and Ben Enlow, appeared before the city commission. Scott acted as spokesman. The address of Scott surprised the city commissioners, as it was well given and founded on facts. The speaker had intimate knowledge of the racial conditions, the history dealing with this problem and above all knowledge of the picture, "The Birth of a Nation." It would have been a benefit to everyone in Janesville to have heard the address of Scott, and it was a pity that he was not given the chance to do so. His arguments carried weight behind the tendency to influence the councilmen. What their action will be is a question, but it is probable that the commission will at least view the picture for the purpose of possibly cutting the obnoxious parts which were described by Scott.

Scott began his address by pointing out that from the title of the play one would expect it to show the development of the country from the thirteen colonies. This is not the purpose of the play, he declared, "but it is for the purpose of stirring up race feeling and hatred against the colored race." No true history, he said, showed the negro as a primitive brute, and only to be controlled by violence, and for this reason the picture was designed to foster hate. It was claimed by Scott that the book, "The Clansman," written by Thomas Dixon, upon which the motion picture is founded, upholds the fact that the two races can live together in peace and harmony in a republic. The book was branded as a crime against the black race and the picture was branded as a crime against the white race, having for its purpose the coming of race hatred into the world.

"The Birth of a Nation" contains all points of history which Americans are trying to forget, and it depicts the most degrading example of the average or the best, but the worst. Scott read opinions of famous statesmen, editors from metropolitan papers and the protest made by T. Washington, champion of the negro race. It was held that the picture ignores the advancement of the negro race in representation of facts and as it was merely put by the colored man has had enough time to succeed now without putting additional burdens on his shoulders when he is trying to make himself an important citizen and obtain an education. Plays like the "Birth of a Nation" hamper and boycott him.

A Southern Plot.
"The story of 'The Birth of a Nation' is strictly that of a rabid southern negro hater and that Thomas Dixon was not a historian, for a historian only presents facts. What Dixon strikes out all the good qualities of the negro race, magnifies their shortcomings and sees nothing but in dealing with the race problem. Historical facts concerning the reconstruction period are ignored and, for example, Mr. Dixon would have us believe that the Ku Klux Klan was organized in vendetta against the negro purpose of protecting white women from the negro, when history tells us the Klan was for the purpose of venturing the negro from using his newly acquired rights and to slay northern white soldiers," said Scott. These plays stir up prejudice against the black man, encourage mob violence and encourage lynching. The play so creates a hatred against the negro that the audience unconsciously cheers the mob in its unlawful deeds and every step that is taken to curb and punish the negro. For years negroes have been lynched and only casual attention paid to it. But now a man is hanged from a tree and a vast cloud of shame hangs over the nation and the north censured the south. "The Birth of a Nation" justifies lynching and mob rule. Just what American people are trying to overcome and what one sees before his eyes carries more weight than words or letters. Dixon founds his book on the fact that the colored man, but where does he speak a single line of half-blooded negro and the shame of the southern white? "The Birth of a Nation" makes a negro a thing, not a man, which we are, since the amendments passed under Lincoln give us citizenship."

Rights of Negro.
Scott made a clear explanation of the stand of the negro with regard to the social, civil and state rights. It was not that the negro wanted to assert himself to obtain social equality with the whites, as claimed by Dixon, but that the prohibiting of the picture was in justice for humanity's sake. If lynching of negroes is upheld the future result cannot help but be an ultimate menace of mob rule and lynching of white wrongdoers. This is for the purpose of poisoning the mind in an un-American manner in degrading and humiliating the black man. Scott read the message of President Wilson with regard to the lynchings of Americans, which puts humanity first, and applied it to the barring of the picture, as the negro belonged to America and is not a national group.

In closing Scott said: "We ask you to place America first, and for our common interest to bar this infamous play from our liberty loving city, not for us alone but for humanity's sake. The struggles of the negro under Union arms fighting in the civil war their rapid strides in education, saving their future hopes, and because trying our level best to deal with appeal to you to prevent this picture from exhibiting here."

Mayor Patterson stated at the close of the address that the city commission was thankful for the address on the subject and would give their decision before Monday, the eighteenth.

STILL PLAYING BASEBALL: STARS BEAT THE WILDCATS
The Monterey Stars defeated the Orchard Wild Cats this morning by the score of 12 to 2. In the seventh inning the Stars experienced a batting rally and scored seven runs. The Stars closed the season this morning and their season record in this morning's game played is eighteen victories and three defeats. The batteries for the game this morning were, Bick and Cassidy, pitchers, and Browley and Cassidy, for the Stars, and Wilson and Cantwell for the Wild Cats.

In the Churches

Congregational Church.
Congregational church.—Rev. Chas. E. Ewing, pastor.
10:30 a. m.—Morning worship. Subject: "The Basis of Hope." Kindergarten for small children of the congregation.
12:00 m.—Sunday school. Classes for all.
7:30 p. m.—Evening worship. Subject: "Good Fighting."
Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—Mid-week meeting. Subject: "Spiritual Efficiency in the Church."
The public is cordially invited to attend all of these services.

Methodist Episcopal Church.
Carell Memorial Methodist Episcopal church.—F. H. Brigham, pastor.
Class meeting:—9:45 a. m.
Morning worship:—10:30. Sermon: "The Twentieth Century Sunday School."
Solo:—C. H. Bearmore.
Special rally day services at 12:00 o'clock. A program will be rendered by the Sunday school.
Evening service:—7:30. Sermon: "From Flow Boy to Prophet."
Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7:30.

Christ Episcopal Church.
Christ Episcopal church.—The Rev. John McKinney, M. A. rector.
The twentieth Sunday after Trinity.
Holy communion:—8:00 a. m.
Morning prayer, litany and sermon:—10:30 a. m.
Sunday school:—12 m.
Evening prayer:—7:30 p. m.
Monday—Remembrance of St. Luke, the Evangelist. Holy communion at 10:00 a. m. Meeting of St. Agnes guild with Mrs. R. J. Halteman at 2:00 p. m.
Tuesday—Remembrance of St. Luke, the Evangelist. Meeting of Christ church guild in parish house at 2:00 p. m.
Wednesday—Festival in parish house for Sunday school beginning at 8:00 p. m.

First Baptist Church.
First Baptist church.—Corner of Jackson and Pleasant streets. Rev. Joseph Chalmers Hazen, pastor.
Sunday school:—9:45 a. m. Music by the school orchestra. A class for every age.
Sunday morning worship:—10:55. Sermon subject: "The Majesty of Strength."
Junior C. E. Society:—2:30. All boys and girls invited.
Young people's Society:—6:30. A wide-awake meeting for young people.
Evening service:—7:30. Subject: "Higher Wages." Service closes in one hour. You are invited.
Special prayer services Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

St. Peter's English Lutheran Church.
St. Peter's English Lutheran church.—Corner South Jackson and Center streets. Rev. E. O. Hoffmeister, M. A. minister.
Sunday school:—9:45 a. m.
Church service:—11:00 a. m. Sermon by Rev. H. Roth.
All are invited.

Christian Science Church.
First Church of Christ, Scientist. Church edifice, corner Pleasant and South High streets.
Services:
Sunday:—10:30 a. m.
Sunday school:—12 m.
Wednesday:—7:45 p. m.
Subject of lesson-sermon Sunday: "Doctrine of Atonement." Reading room, rear of church, open daily, except Sundays and holidays, from 2 to 6 p. m.

United Brethren Church.
Richard's Memorial United Brethren church.—Corner Prospect and Milton avenues. James A. Robinson, pastor.
Bible school at 10:00. H. D. Claxton, superintendent.
Sermon at 11:00. Subject: "Our Need of Faith."
Junior Endeavor at 3:00. Topic: "A Man Who Wanted to See Jesus."
Luk 19:1-10. C. H. Robinson, leader.
Senior Endeavor at 6:30. Topic: "Responsibility for Unions." Ps. 134:1-2. Mrs. Claxton, leader.
Sermon at 7:30: "Faithfulness."
Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

Norwegian Lutheran Church.
Norwegian Lutheran church.—Corner West Bluff and Madison streets. Services in Norwegian at 10:30 a. m.
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. All classes conducted in the English language.
Services in English at 7:30 p. m. You are welcome to our services. T. C. Thorson, pastor.

First Presbyterian Church.
The First Presbyterian church.—Located on the corner of Jackson and Wall streets. Rev. George Edwin Parisien, pastor.
9:45:—Sunday Bible school. A class for every age. Interesting exercises.
11:00:—Morning hour of worship with sermon by the pastor upon the theme: "Christian Fellowship."
6:30:—Christian Endeavor. Topic: "The Relation of Our Society to Work at Large." Leader, Miss Marion Campbell.
7:30:—Evening praise. Service of song, with sermon. Theme: "The Love of Christ." This is the second sermon of a series of three upon "Effective Living."
7:30:—Church hour of prayer and community fellowship.
During the morning hour of worship a kindergarten is maintained for mothers with small children.

Trinity Episcopal Church.
Trinity Episcopal church.—Rev. Henry Willmann, rector.
Twentieth Sunday after Trinity.
Sunday communion:—8:30 a. m.
Holy communion and sermon:—10:30 a. m.
Evening omitted on account of funeral of Horace McElroy.
Monday—Meeting of St. Agnes' guild at 2:00 p. m.
Tuesday—Festival of St. Luke, the Evangelist. Holy communion 7:30 a. m.

First Christian Church.
First Christian church.—Milwaukee and Academy streets. Clark Walker Cummings, minister. Residence 337 N. Terrace street.
Combined service:—10:00 a. m.
Evening worship:—7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting Thursday:—7:30 p. m.
Preparation will be the subject of the morning sermon "The Divine Name" that of the evening. Come and hear about "Preparedness" on Sunday morning.

Diamond La Vallieres Special at $7.50

During this coming week I will offer special a solid gold La Vallieres set with a genuinely cut diamond at $7.50. This is an extra big value and the La Vallieres are extremely beautiful. Let me show them to you.

O. H. OLSON, Jeweler

North Franklin Street and Corn Exchange.

I Recommend Peruna To All Sufferers Of Catarrh

I Do Not Think I Ever Felt Much Better

Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, No. 20 Myrtle St., Beverly, Mass., writes: "I

Classes for all during our study period.

St. Mary's Church.
St. Mary's Roman Catholic church. First mass, 8:30 a. m.; second mass, 10:30 a. m.; vespers, 7:30 p. m.
Rev. Wm. Goebel, pastor.

St. Patrick's Church.
St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church.—Corner Cherry and Holmes streets. Dean E. Kelly, pastor.
Rev. Wm. Mahoney, assistant pastor.
Residence, 315 Cherry street.
First mass, 7:30 a. m.; second mass, 8:00 a. m.; last mass, 10:30 a. m.; vespers, 7:30 p. m.

FIVE CENT ADVANCE IN PRICE OF HOGS

Market Continues Active With Heavy Butchers Selling at Top of $8.95. Cattle Trade Weak.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Hogs were in active demand this morning with prices at a five cent advance. Top figures of $8.95 were reached by best butchers' animals. Cattle trading was indifferent with a light run of a few hundred head. Quotations follow:

Cattle.—Lower: receipts 30 cars; average: light 8.00@8.50; mixed 8.10@8.50; heavy 8.00@8.50; rough 8.00@8.15; pigs 3.25@7.75; bulk of sales 8.25@8.50.
Receipts: 1,000; market steady; weathers 8.00@7.00; lambs, native 6.75@8.90.
Butter.—Unchanged.
Eggs.—Unchanged, 27 1/2 cases.
Poultry.—Lower: receipts 30 cars; Mich-Wis. white 43@50; Minn. white 48@52; Minn.-Ohio 48@52.
Poultry.—Alive: Lower: fowls 12 1/2; springs 13 1/2.

Corn.—Dec: Opening 1.08 1/2; high 1.09 1/2; low 1.08 1/2; closing 1.08 1/2; May: Opening 1.09 1/2; high 1.10 1/2; low 1.09 1/2; closing 1.09 1/2.
Corn.—Dec: Opening 60 1/2; high 61 1/2; low 60 1/2; closing 61 1/2; May: Opening 61 1/2; high 62 1/2; low 61 1/2; closing 62 1/2.
Oats.—Dec: Opening 39 1/2; high 40 1/2; low 39 1/2; closing 40 1/2; May: Opening 40 1/2; high 41 1/2; low 40 1/2; closing 40 1/2.

Cash Market.
Wheat.—No. 2 red nominal; No. 3 red 1 1/2@1.25; No. 2 hard nominal; No. 3 hard nominal.
Corn.—No. 3 yellow 67 1/2@68; Oats.—No. 3 white 38@38 1/2; standard 41.
Clover—$10@18.
Timothy—$5.50@7.50.
Lard—$9.55.
Ribs—$10.00@10.50.
Rye—No. 2 nominal; No. 3 1.00@1.01.
Barley—$2@60.

FRIDAY'S MARKET.
Chicago, Oct. 16.—There was an upturn of 10@20c in lamb values yesterday, best westerns selling at $9.05, highest of week and 15c above a week ago.
The improvement in dressed mutton trade and prospective small supplies for next week were strengthening factors.
Good hogs added tone to yesterday's trade, with best 210-lb. butchers to Armour for New York refrigerator trade at $8.95.
Trade for Canada at $8.85.
The William Davies Company of Toronto, Canada, bought 600 fancy light for shipment dressed at $8.85. Swift's drove, 201 lbs., cost $8.33, and Armour's 225 lbs., $8.38.
Average price of hogs at Chicago

THIS WILL INTEREST MOTHERS.

Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children, a certain relief for Eruptions, Headache, Bad Stomach, Febrile Disorders, Croup and regulate the bowels and destroy Worms. They break up colds in 24 hours. They are so pleasant to the taste Children like them. Cost 10c per tin. Sold by Mothers for 25 years. They never fail. Sold by all Druggists, 25c. Sample mailed FREE. Address, Allen S. Clumsted, Lo Roy, N. Y.

Special Offer

GOOD UNTIL NOV. 1st.

before November 1st, you will be given 25 per cent discount on all photographic orders placed at this studio. In addition to this liberal discount we will give on our regular $5 to $8 photographs one large

Photograph Worth $2.50 FREE

Take advantage of this offer and have your Xmas pictures taken now.

MOTL STUDIO

115 W. Milw. St.

New phone Red 1015.

The Very Newest in Mesh Bags

With the Shell Ivory Ebony and Jade frames and fine link. Durable.

Priced at $3.50, $4.50, $5.00, $6.00.

JEWELRY NOVELTIES

Hundreds of tasteful things, fashioned in gold, and suitable for gift-giving are shown here at moderate prices.

GEORGE C. OLIN
19 WEST MILWAUKEE STREET.

ACCURATE GRINDING OF THE LENSES. IS ONLY ONE ESSENTIAL OF CORRECT EYEGLASSES.

The Selection of mountings adapted to your features, the designing of lenses of a becoming size, their adjustment at the proper distance and angle, with their centers properly before your eyes, are equally important to your complete safety and satisfaction.

Joseph H. Scholler OPTOMETRIST. OFFICE BADGER DRUG CO.

THE NEW GYPSY BOOT

Promises to be a hit with advance dressers.

CALDOW'S BOOT SHOP

JANESVILLE'S EXCLUSIVE SHOE STORE. NEXT TO BOSTWICK'S

PRIZE SEAL 5c CIGAR

Every time you smoke one you want another. The cigar with the lasting taste. For sale by all dealers.

Manufactured by

J. J. WATKINS

Auto Repair Work

Cylinders, transmissions, and all other machine parts of all makes of cars repaired accurately and scientifically at

BUGGS' GARAGE

"A Service Station For Injured Cars."

Both Phones. 12 to 18 North Academy St.

FREE—FREE

ONLY 15 DAYS MORE TO SEND ANSWER. ARE YOU GOING TO TRY FOR THE

CHEST OF SILVER WARE

We are showing in our store window?

$20.00

Worth of the best plated table ware to introduce the La-Fayette pattern.

Get your blanks at the store, fill in your answer, place in envelope and mail or leave at the store and we send the answers to the

ALVIN SILVER CO.

Who act as judges in the contest, and the decision will be returned.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

WILL P. SAYLES

Successor to Hall & Sayles.

"RELIABLE JEWELER."

10 So. Main St. Janesville Wis.

READ GAZETTE WANT ADS

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

Special Demonstration of The Redfern Corsets

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 18, 19 and 20th

It has been our rare good fortune to secure the services of Miss Ida Lewis an expert Corsetiere who will Demonstrate the remarkable features of these Corsets.

This associate designer will be pleased to discuss your Corset problems and give you personal attention in fitting the new REDFERN MODELS best adapted to your figure.

Her advice and assistance is yours for the asking. You are cordially invited to call at any hour or make definite appointment by mail or by telephone.

CORSET SECTION SOUTH ROOM.

Golden Eagle

LEVY'S

TORE BULLETIN AND NEWS

l in the interest of the Public at Large
Who Are Interested in Our New Store.

The Golden Eagle, October 16th, 1915.

pular
r Every Week

this as much for our own sakes as for yours.

BLANKETS AND FURS NOW ON THE SECOND FLOOR

Any mercantile transaction must be founded on the basis of mutual satisfaction.

Your interests are the interests of this store. We strive to bring only those things you want here and offer them at prices we think you would want to pay.

Men's "Dress Up Week" was a big success. Men bought as they haven't bought in the past two years. The result is that many of the men of this city look more prosperous than they did—a good thing for the whole city.

Do you read our daily advertisements in this newspaper? If you will watch them closely it will enable you to practice many economies and also keep you informed as to the new styles as fast as they are shown here.

are Completely Ready to Supply Your Fall Needs

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.

ESTABLISHED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING.

Members of Associated Press.
Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations.
Member of Wisconsin Daily League.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Unsettled weather tonight and Sunday with rain west portion to night and probably rain Sunday; slowly rising temperature.

BY CARRIER
One Year $5.00
One Month $1.00
Three Months $2.50
Six Months $4.50
BY MAIL CASH IN ADVANCE
One Year $4.00
One Month $1.00
Three Months $2.00
Six Months $3.50
RURAL DELIVERY IN ROCK COUNTY.
One Year $4.00

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.
In sending change of address for your paper be sure to give the present address as well as the new one. This will insure better and quicker service.

The publication of Ordinary Notices, Resolutions, "Lards of Thanks," etc., can be made at 15c per cent line of 6 words each. "Lards of Thanks" are printed with full confidence in the character and reliability of the advertiser. This will insure better and quicker service.

The Gazette does not knowingly accept false or fraudulent advertising or other advertising of an objectionable nature. Every advertisement is printed with full confidence in the character and reliability of the advertiser. This will insure better and quicker service.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

On the frenzied attempt to produce a chemically pure race by laws, which have been piled sky-high on the statute books of the land, the public of Chicago runs this appropriate little rhyme:

Are your neighbors very bad?
Pass a law!
Do they smoke? Do they chew?
Pass a law!
Are they always bothering you?
Don't they do as you would do?
Pass a law!
Are your wages awful low?
Pass a law!
Are the prices much too high?
Do the wife and babies cry?
Cause the turkey all roost high?
Pass a law!

When M. D. finds new diseases,
Pass a law!
Got the mumps or encephalitis,
Measles, croup or "expertitis"?
Lest we all fly to pieces,
Pass a law!

Are the lights burning red?
Pass a law!
Paint 'em green, or paint 'em white!
Close up all them places tight!
My! Our town is such a sight!
Pass a law!

No matter what the trouble is,
Pass a law!
Goodness sakes, but ain't it awful!
My! What are we going to do?
Almost anything ain't lawful,
And the Judge is human, too!
Pass a law!

It is an old saying that the best governed people are the least governed, and yet laws are necessary for the protection of life and property. If our lawmakers were content to stop when protection is furnished, there would be no cause for complaint, but unfortunately a new field of activity has been discovered, which has been devoted by the federal and state governments, to enacting laws which have to do with regulating every thing in sight and as a result the nation has suffered from an epidemic of law.

There was a time, long ago, when current history for forty years recorded the experiences of a nation, six hundred thousand strong, as it sojourned in the wilderness between the land of bondage and the land of promise.

These people were rescued from the most abject slavery, where violation of law meant death, to become the subjects of Divine care and guidance. They were left to govern themselves, to large extent, and if loyal, were to inherit for a home, a land flowing with milk and honey, but freedom and prosperity was too much for these chosen people, and a code of laws was found necessary to preserve them from idolatry and rebellion.

This short mosaic code, recorded on tablets of stone, for the protection of the children of Israel, is of Divine origin. It is so comprehensive that it covers crime and morality, and so complete that it was long since adopted as the basis of all law. The man who observes it is never a criminal, and his moral character is never questioned.

Not content with this simple criminal and moral code, the modern lawmaker takes upon himself the responsibility of becoming a dictator and legislator and as a result, our statute books are crowded with all sorts of freak laws, many of them inoperative, and many of them burdensome.

For the past twenty years the United States has enjoyed an unparalleled era of prosperity and under its influence, unrest has developed, until green-eyed envy has clouded vision that an army of people, inspired by long-haired reformers, are out with clubs for every head in sight.

It is the easiest thing in the world to incite a mob, when the mob spirit is abroad in the land, and so when capital, represented by large corporations and big business, became the target, it was not difficult to crystallize public sentiment, and law was used as the medium of attack.

The red hand of anarchy has never gained much of a foothold on American soil, but its half sister, socialism, has flourished like a green bay tree. The only difference in the propaganda, is that anarchy believes in confiscation by force while socialism works under legal protection.

Many of the laws enacted during the last decade are confiscatory laws. They are so oppressive and destructive that they have played havoc with our railroads and our industries. They encourage a system of espionage and interference, such as this free land has never known before, and they are a disgrace to intelligent people.

But for the world's war, which has so absorbed public attention, that all else was forgotten, there is no telling where we might have landed. The nation has been checked in its crazy career, and sober thought may bring us to our senses. We are suffering from an epidemic of law and regulation.

Every child that comes to the years of understanding in normal condition, discovers that obedience to the laws of the home is expected, if not demanded, and that cheerful compliance is better than stubborn resistance. If every home was a law-abiding home there would be less lawlessness in the next generation.

The foundation trouble is, that too many children are lawless in the home, and when they go out into life and assume the responsibilities of citizenship they imagine that every man has the right to be a law unto himself, and so they become disciples of personal liberty, which means license in its broadest sense.

It is fortunate for this country that obedience is one of the fundamental principles of the cradle, and that the most of our children are taught to respect law, early in life. This respect soon takes the place of fear, and when it does, obedience becomes a pleasure.

The people who obey the laws of the land through fear, belong to the criminal or near criminal class, but the great mass and file of humanity render obedience through respect. Sometimes a difficult thing to do, in these days of freak and unjust legislation.

There was never a time in the history of this country when the temptation to evade and violate law was so pronounced as it is today, and yet the great mass and file of humanity have discovered that our lawmakers are of our own selection, and the remedy to correct the evil is in our hands. So efforts are being made all along the line, to turn the rascals out, and they are going.

The mosaic law has to do with crime and morality. It furnishes employment for an army of lawyers in all kinds of courts, and safeguards the people, but there is another code of wider range, because it has to do with the unit of society and the home, the individual.

This is known as the code of unwritten law, which touches every life everywhere. Abstract law is a product of the brain and mind. "Thou shalt and thou shalt not" is a cold-blooded proposition, but the unwritten law is a product of the heart, destitute of all commands.

It has to do with courtesy and kindness, with patience and forbearance, and with all the graces which spring from its source, the three cardinal virtues—faith, hope and charity.

The home where this law is recognized and adopted, is a model home, and the life which is influenced and controlled by its principles, is a successful and happy life.

The criminal code and the moral code are necessary for the protection of life and property, but when the unwritten code is universally adopted, the restraints of law will be less burdensome because justice and mercy will go hand in hand, and then will be the millennium.

SNAP SHOTS

When a banker is sent to the penitentiary there is a great disappointment. There is nothing the average man so much enjoys as the theory that plenty of money enables a man to escape justice.

Occasionally, nerve wins and is very generally mistaken for judgment.

There is no merit in hanging out after the game has gone against you.

Nothing pleases a man so much as a reputation for being a spender.

The introduction of the stings in the hands of the police is one of the oldest jokes in the world without an any way increasing the production of money.

A colored skin and a disposition to preach saddles a man with a pretty heavy burden.

It is comparatively easy to drum up a keg at every regular meeting.

Eph Wiley seems to take the common sense view of it. Eph says if a man wants to punish himself by becoming a Mormon that is his business.

Once in a while the element of originality is needed, an escapade. We refer, of course, to a Kansas man who took his wife, instead of another woman, when he ran away.

Every popular hero gets credit for victories in battles that never were fought.

Buck Kilby says if a man is a dyspeptic himself, his license to advise people along dietetic lines should be revoked.

A political campaign brings many intricate problems to light. How many votes does a brass band get?

The Daily Novelette

Simon and Sue.
—A man sometimes finds it almost as hard work to live up to his ideals as a woman finds it to live up to her photograph.

Simon License pushed aside his cup of Sanagargle (adv.) and looked across the river at his wife.

"Pamphlette," he mused, "do you know we have been married twenty years today?"

"Yes, Simon," she replied quietly. "Twenty years," he went on. "And in all that time I have never once so much as raised my foot to you."

"No, Simon," she replied. "Never once has a cross word come between us."

"We have agreed on everything," Simon said. "Our married life has been as smooth as summer waters, Pamphlette."

"Not so much as a ripple has disturbed it, Simon." "And haven't you, too, found it dam monolous, Pamphlette?" "Yes, Simon," she replied. "Let's get a divorce, Pamphlette."

"Simon, you've taken the words out of my mouth. But we can always be friends. We get along so well together."

On the Spur of the Moment

ROY K. MOULTON

Another by Ella Mae Doolittle. Ella Mae Doolittle ate a delicious cantaloupe with ice cream in it recently. Result—the following poem: The season for cantaloupe is full on us.

Delicious, round and mellow. I'm glad to see you, Sir Cantaloupe, I offer you a glad "hello!" But listen, friends, don't get sick. For I certainly hate gluttons.

If you find you are eating too much, Switch and take beans or mutton. My sister's child, Teeny Ricketts, Tried to cut the tassel off the calf's tail.

The calf kicked her very madly. Stop, Teeny! Be gentle without fail. But getting back to the luscious cantaloupe.

My love for thee is true and real. Widow Mason's son, the actor, is home. Look! Like he needed a square meal.

Help Wanted.—First class machinist-operator on model 10 in town of 1,000. Preferences to practical printer who can handle trombone, cello or trap drums in good order and who has $3,000 to $5,000 to put up brick building. Attractive proposition, absolutely safe. No experiment. Address, Niobrara, Neb.—Linotype Bulletin.

To the Cannery With These.
Sport shirts,
Cracker barrel experts,
Ford stories,
White shoes,
Brokers, tongs,
"Non-skid" tires,
Gasoline savers,
Hysterical salvation.

Another Auto Accident.
A long-whiskered man in Atchison, Kans., reached over too far to tinker the engine of his Ford last Friday and the machine promptly grabbed him by the beard and jerked him over the dashboard.—Cass Co. (Mo.) Leader.

It Was Some Marriage.
A foreman on one of the weekly papers carried on the fair competitors on the same sheet and this is the way the paper mentioned the marriage: "In obedience to the universal mandate and innate instinct which with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unerringly and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in the processes of time two existences, two lives, two individuals with true of every citizen ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and chivalrous, the brave and gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless un

Painless Dentistry

My patients frequently tell me that I cause them No Pain whatever in doing their work.

Let me prove this to be the truth in Your Case.

My Prices cause less pain also than you will find elsewhere and this is no jolly.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS

Dentist.
(Over Rehberg's.)
All work fully guaranteed.

What Makes a Bank Strong?

Ample Capital and Large Surplus. Large Cash Reserve. Experienced Management. Careful and Active Directorate.

WE HAVE THEM.

The First National Bank

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

THE BANK OF THE PEOPLE

Established 1855.
The Bank With the Efficient Service.

ELECTED DIRECTORS AT ANNUAL MEETING

STOCKHOLDERS OF JANESVILLE PARK ASSOCIATION DECIDE IMPORTANT MATTERS.

AMEND INCORPORATION

Munn, Croak, Putnam, Soulmán, Nowlan, Moore, Parker, Chosen.—Nichols and Amerphol refuse Re-election.

Important matters vital to the interests of the Janesville Park association were taken up at the annual meeting of the stockholders, held at the assembly room of the city hall on Friday evening. A new board of directors was named to handle the affairs of the association for the coming year, and a resolution amending the articles of incorporation was passed which will become effective next year.

There were but eighty odd stockholders present in person, but some were represented in person or by proxy. There was no real friction over any of the business at hand, and while the session lasted from eight until long after midnight, there was so much activity and business to be transacted that it could not have been hurried along much faster. The success of the 1915 Janesville fair was exploited, the reports of the various officers read and approved of by the stockholders. John C. Nichols made some radical suggestions as to the future of the association and severely criticized the directors of the present board in many of the reports of the various officers.

Resolution Passed. The most important feature of the meeting was the resolution passed for the amendment of the articles of incorporation so that next year when directors are elected to the number of seven, two will remain in office for one year; two for two years, and three for three years.

Discussion and seven votes taken on increasing the number of directors to nine and even eleven. After argument, it was decided to keep the number at seven, but the number of directors would be increased to nine or eleven would be unworkable and ten would handicap the work of the organization. It was also decided that the number would be increased to nine or eleven would be unworkable and ten would handicap the work of the organization.

The new directors elected and the votes cast were as follows: Frank Croak, 133; John Soulmán, 222; Edward H. Parker, 223; William K. Moore, 171; Dr. W. A. Munn, 236; Harry Nowlan, 241; and C. S. Putnam, 240. The other candidates and their votes were: C. S. Croak, 99; T. B. Welsh, 34; John Kennedy, 19; and A. M. Paul, 37.

Storm Brewing. The election of officers was held over to the last moment and at nearly one o'clock when the result was announced by the tellers. Before this juncture it was evident that a stormy time was pending over the selection of the new board. Trouble did not come to the surface until a late hour, when John C. Nichols, president of the board and president of the association, attempted to censor the policy of certain stockholders in obtaining a swarm of proxies to oust members of the board for personal reasons. Nichols came forward with the impression that too much criticism had been cast by men, whom he termed "knockers," who came organized to oust certain officers. At this point President Nichols came forward with the statement that he was not a candidate for office, as business demanded more of his time, and that under conditions would he allow his name to be placed on the nominating list.

Personal Matter. It was recommended by Nichols that the officers for the board be elected by the stockholders, and the reason given was that the board has the power to elect and oust officers, and it might become a personal matter. After announcing that he would not accept an office, Mr. Nichols said: "It is unfair to criticize the board for money matters or for other reasons, when they are working for the common interest of the stockholder. The board has worked hard, given both time and their own money to the association, and the reason for this is a small loss to the association. A small loss to the association was declared, was due to the weather conditions and not to any shortcomings of the board."

Remarks by Charles Wild, who was opposed to larger board of directors and called for harmony among the directors. Thomas E. Welsh arose and defended the board of directors on the ground it was necessary to obtain a sufficient number of representatives to transact business. As there were about eighty present at the meeting and a total representation of 249, the remainder being by proxy—the logic of this argument was clearly shown.

Recommend Secretary. Mr. Nichols before the election made a recommendation that the Park association employ a secretary or manager, as it was declared the association should have one man at the head to curb the spending of money by having too many individuals at the cost of the horse races and defended the expenditure with the logical argument that the races alone insured the financial success of the association. It was declared that there had been some debate on changing the date of the fair, but no other acceptable date had been advanced.

When nomination for the board of directors was in order, John L. Fisher arose and put forward a motion to have the secretary cast a unanimous ballot for the old board. Another stockholder arose and said that the issues before the meeting were clear and it should be decided by voting, and his rule went. The nominations were quick to come and it was plain that the minds of the majority of the stockholders and the number holding proxies were centered on certain men who received the ballots as the standings demonstrate. The names of Edward Amerphol, treasurer, and Nichols, but he withdrew his name.

Reports Given. At the opening of the meeting reports were given only in a limited form. Each stockholder received a printed statement of the more important finances, and after President Nichols spoke on the successful fair held this summer and the adverse financial results, the matter of auditing the books was taken up. This caused a snag for the directors and several stockholders insisted that the laws of the association be conforming with and the books were audited by members. It was reported that a bookkeeper had inspected the records, and his report read: "The books are correct." President Nichols named John F. Schoof to head the auditing committee and for him to name two assistants. Several moves to disperse with the auditing were bailed and the matter left in this manner. The reports of Secretary Nowlan and Treasurer Amerphol were accepted and filed. John Soulmán brought up the discussion on how to collect unpaid subscriptions amounting to $3,900. It was declared and approved by the stockholders that the new board of directors would lose no prestige by forcing the negligent subscribers to meet their obligations, and after making a final notice to consult a competent lawyer and set out for the amount due for stock, it was held that when a subscriber signed for a subscription it was similar to placing one's signature to a bank note.

Pass Resolution. The matter of changing the incorporation articles to allow directors to hold office longer than a year and the question of electing stockholders elect the officers directly and not by the number of members for the board was discussed freely. A committee of three, consisting of L. F. Croak, Fred Burpee and Charles Wild, was named to make a report on this matter. Their report after alterations passed by a large vote that the board consist of seven members, as in the past, that they name their officers and that terms shall be extended for five of the members. This will become effective at the next annual meeting, and the chances of a new board made by the new board of directors.

As soon as the ballots were cast over half of the stockholders left and the three who were present when the results were announced.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Peter Mork and sister, Miss Oulila Hesel, left yesterday for Chicago, where they will be the guests of relatives for several days.

Rollo Dobson has left on a business trip to Kansas City.

M. O. Mounat transacted business today at Madison.

John Flanagan is at Fox Lake on business today.

James Hoague spent today at Orfordville.

P. W. Ryan was at Mazamonte today.

O. A. Oestreich was a business visitor at Milwaukee today.

Alfred Griswold has left for Prairie du Sac, where he has accepted a position as electrician with the Wisconsin Light and Power company.

John Shearer of Chicago will be the Sunday guest of his mother, Mrs. James Shearer of Mineral Point avenue.

S. P. Schadd of Monroe is a Janesville visitor today.

Mrs. Wallace Conrath and Mrs. T. M. Hatter left today for Montrose, South Dakota, where they were called by the death of a brother.

Mrs. Fred Gould and daughter Iva of Lima Center are spending the day in the city.

George Warren of Pearl street.

Miss Eulalia Drew is home from Beloit College. She came to attend the Gennison-Kohler wedding, which takes place this evening.

J. T. Kean of Madison is a business visitor in town today.

John McElroy of Chicago is in the city. He was called by the death of the late Horace McElroy.

Clem Jackson is home to spend Sunday, from St. John's Military school at Beloit, Wis.

Mrs. Vic Campbell of Evansville is spending the day with friends in Janesville.

Mrs. Faith Bostwick of St. Lawrence avenue was a Chicago visitor on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fifield of North Washington street are spending the day with friends in Whitewater.

John Nichols was a Beloit visitor on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McKee of Milwaukee are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCarthy of East street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCarthy of East street are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCarthy of East street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCarthy of East street are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCarthy of East street.

PLANT BLACK BASS FRY BETWEEN DAMS DURING LAST WEEK

Results in Game Protection and Propagation by Rod and Gun Club Being Shown.

Within three years' time the hunting and fishing in Rock county is going to be improved at least seventy per cent, due to the efforts of the Rock County Rod and Gun club in protecting and in the propagation of game. During the summer and last year millions of fish fry were planted in Rock river, and this week one thousand black bass, bluegill, and bass minnows were released between the two Janesville dams.

The result is being watched with interest. Recently two sportsmen went to a spot in Rock river where there was likely there would be small fish that have developed from the fry planted by the club. At every haul of the seine hundreds of pike, bass and perch averaging two and three inches in length, were drawn up and then released. Two or three years' more time and protection will allow these fish to grow to "catchable" size and in turn increase their numbers. Three more pheasants were released at the game preserve north of the city last week, and the club and county shows that the fifteen birds released a year ago now number 128.

No more fish fry can be obtained from the state as the appropriations for the purpose have been exhausted, but the club is fairly well satisfied with the present results. At Yost park a shipment of perch was made and these fish are faring far beyond expectations.

Hunters bring in reports that the ducks are hard to find as the high water this fall flooded the lowlands and ducks have many places to feed other than the lake and river. The small ponds and fields furnish good places for the ducks.

SAFE PROVES UNSAFE AS THIEF GETS $240

Sneak Thief Obtains Wallet of Money and Unintended Checks From Dorn Saloon Friday Afternoon.

About three o'clock Friday afternoon, Simon Dorn, proprietor of the Dorn saloon on North Main street, discovered that $240 in currency and checks was stolen from a small safe by a daring sneak thief who took the money while he was alone. Three men were seated to the side of the room where they could only obtain a limited view of the front where the safe was located. The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar. The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

The man, who was reported to be a stranger, came in the front door and went behind the gate which bars the office portion as if to use the telephone as the phones are on the wall above the bar.

BUDGET ESTIMATES BEFORE COUNCIL; AMOUNTS HIGHER

Comptroller's Report Shows Council Will Have Hard Task To Keep Tax Rate As Low As Last Year.

By the annual comptroller's report presented to the city council at their meeting yesterday afternoon, information can be gained on the amounts to be appropriated for the budget levy, or at least amounts that will be considered by the council before passing the resolution. Nearly all the department estimates show an increased estimate for the budget and but one, the bridge fund, will be left with the balance left over from this year.

The estimates of the comptroller are as follows: bonded debt fund, $22,940 compared to $23,000 last year; general fund, $138,000 compared to $137,500 last year; and $17,500 from the saloon license money; fire and water, $23,730,000 which includes $4,500 to be received from saloon licenses as compared to $1,550,000 last year; lighting fund, $12,600, the same as last year. This item may be changed when the contract is considered for the ornamental lighting system to an increased amount, library $5,000 same as last year, memorial fund, $75. The balance in the bridge fund amounts to $6,776.76.

The Board of Education have petitioned for an increase of $6,000; the industrial school asks for a total of $7,200 as compared to $5,763 a year ago. Faced with this increased expense accounts it is difficult to see where the city commission will be able to make their appropriation down to the amount last year of $151,839.00 which made the city tax rate of $9.86 per thousand—the lowest rate in the state. The council accepted and filed the report.

Mayor Fathers read a communication from the Western Union Telegraph company seeking permission to open up Franklin street from Race street to the corn exchange for the laying of cable conduits to the office on the Corn Exchange. The underground wires which the council have ordered down. Four manholes are shown in the plans to be built at the street intersections and in front of the office. The manholes are to be built at the street intersections and in front of the office.

The bond of William Hill, amounting to $138, for construction of covered gutters, was approved. The bond of J. Goldfish and also of Sam Dorf as junk dealers, was approved.

The report of the city visiting nurse for last month was accepted and filed.

Estimates from Fire Chief H. C. Klein, the Board of Education and the Industrial School for budget needs were received and accepted.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

On motion meeting was adjourned until Tuesday.

At your service Saturday evening from 7:15 to 8:30 o'clock.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

Open a Savings Account tonight. One Dollar will do it.

THE GAZETTE'S MOTORIST PROBLEM DEPARTMENT

(Published Saturdays.)

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I want to put a new leather on my car. I would like to know how to do it. I have a 1910 car.

The half side of the leather should be in contact with the wheel. The leather should be soaked in water overnight. It should be placed on the wheel and the water should be squeezed out. The leather should be smoothed down and the water should be squeezed out. The leather should be smoothed down and the water should be squeezed out.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—Would you please advise me whether it is better to have a car with a motor or a car with a pump? I am thinking of buying a car.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I have noted in your paper quite often the use of the word "motor" in connection with a car. I would like to know what it means. Is it a pump or a motor?

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I have noted in your paper quite often the use of the word "motor" in connection with a car. I would like to know what it means. Is it a pump or a motor?

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I have noted in your paper quite often the use of the word "motor" in connection with a car. I would like to know what it means. Is it a pump or a motor?

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I have noted in your paper quite often the use of the word "motor" in connection with a car. I would like to know what it means. Is it a pump or a motor?

WHEN IN DOUBT TAKE YOUR CAR TO A GOOD GARAGE.

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE CIRCUS BUSINESS

By D. W. WATT

In the fall of '84 after Adam Forepaugh had counted up the tickets of the evening performance, which work he always did personally, he said to me: "I have engaged several of the people with the show for the coming season, Dave, and mentioned an act that he had not yet closed with, and asked me what I thought of it. And while many times he would ask my advice in such matters, it was not always that he used it."

After he had gone over the list of acts that he had already engaged for the coming season, I said to him: "Governor, I know a big 'Hoosier' living on a farm near a small town in Indiana, who is a contortionist and I think a very good one. His appearance, build and manner, would not indicate that he is a great performer, for he stands six foot and will weigh around 200. He was with the Burr Hobbin show and at one time he was counted on for more salary, did not return. In appearance you would rather take him to be a boss canvasser or perhaps a heavyweight fighter, but when he gets to work in the ring, he never fails to make a hit. His name is Lem Munson, and I know if your show engaged him for the entire season that he would fill the bill."

Nothing more was said about Munson, and it was along in the winter that I received a letter from him saying that he had signed a contract with the Forepaugh show, for the coming season, and that he would like to know when I was going to see him to Philadelphia with me, as he had never been east.

I wrote and told him that I would go on to the show a couple of weeks before time to open, and would notify him in time so he could meet me at Fort Wayne, where we always stopped for supper—for in those days, there were but few dining cars. When the time arrived at Fort Wayne, there was a big Hoosier who looked more like a big team driver than he did a contortionist, and he was tickled to death to think that he had some one to make the journey with.

We arrived in Philadelphia the next evening, and the following morning we put in an appearance at the show grounds, where the big top was up and a hundred or more performers were in practice. Forepaugh, I told him to go in and take a look at the big top and perhaps he would find some people there that he knew. After he had left the ticket window, and came back, he said: "Dave, I think that you had better get one of those two weeks notice ready, for if that fellow is a contor-

There must be some obstruction to the flow of water. It is possible that in welding some of the metal may have become loose. A piece of solder will become loose in the water outlet, thereby obstructing the flow of water. If the water pump is working, there should be a sufficient amount of water to keep the engine cool. If the water pump is not working, the engine will become overheated. The water pump should be checked and the water should be changed if necessary. The water pump should be checked and the water should be changed if necessary.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—The engine in my motor car has given me repeated trouble. It jerks continuously at times and seems to be making a noise as if it were running on a rough road. It seems to be making a noise as if it were running on a rough road. It seems to be making a noise as if it were running on a rough road. It seems to be making a noise as if it were running on a rough road.

HELPFUL HINTS.

A small quantity of glycerine applied to the windshield with a piece of clean waste will help to keep the glass clean when driving in the rain. The water will not stick to the glass so readily, and a clearer vision will be obtained. If too much glycerine is used the effect will be worse.

Very few people know how to adjust the spark plug points. Nine times out of ten the points are separated too far. Most every one carries with him an ordinary visiting card. The spark gap should equal the thickness of such a card.

The unequal adjustment of the breaks probably does more damage to tires than actual wear. When one wheel locks and the other turns free there is a great deal of strain on the fabric of the tires on the locked wheel. By placing jacks under each rear wheel one can adjust the brakes of each wheel in a uniform manner.

Where gear cases or differential housings are provided with vents to permit the escape of air under pressure that results from heating, care should be taken to see that the vents are kept free. Not infrequently careless painters cover the screen that generally is only to the opening, which makes it as good as no aperture at all.

Service from tires may be increased by changing the front tires to the rear and the rear tires to the front after a reasonable wear and run time. This will give the tires a more uniform wear.

will experience trouble. Also see that there are no air leaks in the carburetor intake manifold.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I have separated the spark plug points to double the distance on the machine I am running and I sure think the bigger spark gives better results. I am new in the business and a friend of mine, an old time chauffeur, tells me I am looking for trouble and will get it. What I want to know is why a bigger spark is bad, and what trouble it is likely to cause, as I don't want to run the risk of doing any damage.

If the space at the plug is too wide the current will take the path of least resistance and jump the safety gap. This will cause the motor to misfire. If there is no safety gap in the system, damage is sure to result in but the secondary insulation may be punctured. The high tension current will find a circuit. If not completed through the points of the plug, due to the great resistance of the spark gap, then it will jump elsewhere and in the probability through the insulation of the coil. When this happens the coil is of no further use until repaired.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—Will you please answer through your valuable automobile advice section if it is possible to lengthen the wheel base on a motor car? I have a 1910 car. The wheel base is 30 inches. I would like to lengthen it to 32 inches. I would like to lengthen it to 32 inches. I would like to lengthen it to 32 inches.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I have a 1910 car which is giving me trouble recently after running engine two or three minutes. It will miss unless I run twenty-five miles. I am new in the business and a friend of mine, an old time chauffeur, tells me I am looking for trouble and will get it. What I want to know is why a bigger spark is bad, and what trouble it is likely to cause, as I don't want to run the risk of doing any damage.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I would appreciate it very much if you could let me know what is the best way to adjust the spark plug points. I have a 1910 car and I am new in the business.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I would appreciate it very much if you could let me know what is the best way to adjust the spark plug points. I have a 1910 car and I am new in the business.

Motorist Department. The Gazette.—I would appreciate it very much if you could let me know what is the best way to adjust the spark plug points. I have a 1910 car and I am new in the business.

Frankie Hunt. He started in the business with P. A. Older, who for a time made Janesville his home and later his winter quarters were in Independence, Iowa.

After leaving the Older Show, Frankie went to the Eddie O'Brien show where he remained some years as a bareback rider, but the last two or three years with the O'Brien Show, he was assistant manager to M. E. O'Brien and at times had charge of the show. As the general agent ahead of the show, Frankie Hunt always was a big salaried man, and for some years back has been connected with hotels on different cities and at the present time owns a hotel in La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Frank has carried his age well, has the same feminine face which always carries a smile, and is a most interesting character to visit with. He commenced in the business in the early '70s and as he has filled many important positions around the show, he is always glad to meet an old timer and go back and rehearse over the yesterdays of long ago. It is visits with Frankie Hunt's kind, that carries me back to many bright spots in the business years ago.

Ed. Ballard, whose home is at West Baden, Indiana, and is one of the principle stockholders in the Hagenbeck-Wallace Show, is building winter quarters for the show, and to show their appreciation and high esteem in which they hold Mr. Ballard in his home town, he is showing a letter received here which contains the following:

Over ten thousand people came to West Baden on Saturday, September 11, to see the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, and everyone of that vast throng knew and personally greeted through his neighbors, "Ed" is the familiar salutation heard on every hand, when Ed. Ballard is hustling around his usual haunts, be that in the famous club by singularly handsome and well known to the people who hold him in high esteem. The man, he draws men to him as if by magnetism, and instead of being treated with indifference and coldness as many men of wealth and position are treated, Ed. Ballard attracts a crowd of friends, and consequently when word was circulated that his show was coming to West Baden and French Lick, every neighbor, the entire population, simply rose en masse and marched to the beautiful golf links where the city of tents had been located.

The Monon and Southern roads had provided as they thought, an abundance of equipment to handle the crowds, but they miscalculated—for two extra trips had to be made by the excursion trains to get the people who had been left behind for lack of cars. The weather was perfect, the crowd immense, the performance superb. The parade was taken over to French Lick and returned via the boulevard along which the new winter quarters are to be located. At the head of the parade, in a carriage, rode the Honorable W. J. Sinclair, who conceived the idea of the present wonderful structure known as the West Baden Hotel. This grand old man of southern Indiana, generously permitted the circus to use the beautiful golf links adjacent to this hotel free of charge, his one wish being that everyone be happy on this occasion. With Mr. Sinclair rode Ed. Ballard, the principle owner of the show, and Charles E. Cory, the general manager. The employees of the show thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. Ballard by participating in the dance in the parlors of the beautiful Homestead Hotel and indulging in a lavish Dutch lunch, which he provided. The French Lick orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion. The circus train bureau purposely held until an early hour Sunday morning.

Sells Ton of Candies Every Saturday

Benedetto Allegretti Advertises Fresh Seconds at Factory Prices Instead of Selling at Sacrifice to Caramel Makers.

$23,000 Advertising Investment Brings
$300,000 Yearly Sales.
(By Andrew L. Demling.)

Freely admitting, as we do, that the indiscretions of Tantalus led him into an exceedingly uncomfortable situation, we must confess to a lurking doubt that his experience with the thirst and the unkind water was very much worse than spending a large fraction of an hour steeped, immersed in a rich chocolate aroma, and never a piece of the finished product available.

The testimony of any young lady would be sufficient to testify to all, as to how many pieces of candy he had to share, from the highly beribboned box that makes its appearance with Sunday evening and her regular carrier, will bear out the assertion that it is the ungentler sex who are the eaters of sweets.

Whether this is because the aforesaid sex loves sweets the more, or fears obesity the less, is not to be determined. It is, however, because its internal equipment is usually so accustomed to dealing with heat-producing forces of sterner nature that it accepts the experience with gratitude, has very little bearing on the ultimate truth as stated.

Which being established, we feel ourselves qualified to look with tolerance on the experience of Tantalus, the more so as his was retribution, and happened quite a while ago, and ours was necessity, and happened only this year.

For during the whole past year, from the pages of nearly every issue of a certain Chicago newspaper an invitation to buy delicious, fresh chocolate candies at factory prices, has halted the eye of the city's candy lovers.

At least, it has halted our own regularly scheduled mission was to find out how many others had accepted the invitation. Learned Candy Making in Greece. The absence of Benedetto Allegretti, his manager, Mr. W. E. Bean, fell a victim to our thirst for information.

The original Allegretti? No, Benedetto was not the original proprietor. That was his uncle, Ignazio, but Benedetto was his candy maker, so he is really one of the original Allegrettis. Ignazio died when he was a student where his father had sent him, and after a couple of years in the Italian navy, came to America, and opened a delicatessen store.

I guess his business experience extended over the greater part of the country, and he eventually invented the present method of shipping perishable goods in refrigerated cars.

It was while he was in "Parisico" that he sent for his nephew, Benedetto and his brother, for he found that people wanted candy worse than they did delicatessen materials, and he saw a great opportunity for a maker of fine candies.

Opens Factory in Barn. "But fortune was fickle at first, and a few years later saw him in Chicago, and Benedetto selling flowers on the street corner at State and Washington.

Then he started his first individual factory in his barn, with such success that he eventually formed a partnership with Rubel, in a business that was successful for many years. Eventually the partnership was dissolved, and this firm is now Benedetto Allegretti, Incorporated.

Placed Faith in Newspaper. "Was he always a newspaper advertiser?" we asked. "A confirmed one," he replied. "Each year, as the business has grown, our advertising appropriation has assumed correspondingly larger proportions."

"Then a year ago we decided to try it out on a problem that had always been a poser. It has not only solved it, but I have would sell even more, if we had it."

Advertising Sells Tons of Seconds Every Saturday. "What was the problem, and what would it all more of?" we inquired. "Seconds," he smiled, and went on to explain, in response to our blunder, than usual expression.

"We are the only people making hand made and rolled centers for chocolate candies. Our daily capacity here is about 3,000 pounds, and out of that amount, there are sometimes in the neighborhood of 1,000 pounds that are irregular or imperfect in shape."

"We have to have perfectly shaped and sized pieces in our boxes, to assure full weight, and also that they won't shake or become crushed. So by the end of the week, we usually find ourselves with a ton or a little over, of the so-called 'seconds,' which are either fresh but imperfectly shaped candies."

"Until this year it was our custom to dispose of them to the caramel makers, who melted them and used them over. But about a year ago we set about to find a way of selling them at less of a sacrifice in price."

"Our ultimate decision was to put it up to the newspapers. We began advertising these seconds at wholesale, or factory prices."

"We had been led to expect results, but not such immediate ones, or such enormous ones. It was not long before we were selling all those seconds here over the counter, and now we are selling a ton of them every Saturday, and through our newspaper advertising."

Sells $300,000 Worth of Candies Yearly. "And that is only one of the things newspaper advertising is doing for us. Among other things, it is selling $300,000 worth of candies a year for us."

"Once you've established your practice and the quality of your candies through the newspapers, the next thing to do is to keep people constantly thinking about them, constantly hungry for them."

There is one effective way of doing that: to keep your name and attractive and tantalizing descriptions of your goodies before them, in the newspapers."

Copyright 1915—Andrew L. Demling.

In nearly ever' recklessly driven tourin' car we meet there's an old lady in th' back seat lookin' as if she wuz ridin' again her will. Wouldn't it be fine if we could have films of our orators instead of havin' to hear them?

This is Free. If you want your advice to be appreciated, charge money for it.—Los Angeles Times.

THE WRONG BACKING. Wags—Did you ever back a horse? Smith—Yes, once. Wags—Win anything? Smith—Win anything? You see, I backed the horse through a shop window and had to pay $25.

Learned Candy Making in Greece. The absence of Benedetto Allegretti, his manager, Mr. W. E. Bean, fell a victim to our thirst for information.

The original Allegretti? No, Benedetto was not the original proprietor. That was his uncle, Ignazio, but Benedetto was his candy maker, so he is really one of the original Allegrettis. Ignazio died when he was a student where his father had sent him, and after a couple of years in the Italian navy, came to America, and opened a delicatessen store.

I guess his business experience extended over the greater part of the country, and he eventually invented the present method of shipping perishable goods in refrigerated cars.

It was while he was in "Parisico" that he sent for his nephew, Benedetto and his brother, for he found that people wanted candy worse than they did delicatessen materials, and he saw a great opportunity for a maker of fine candies.

Opens Factory in Barn. "But fortune was fickle at first, and a few years later saw him in Chicago, and Benedetto selling flowers on the street corner at State and Washington.

Then he started his first individual factory in his barn, with such success that he eventually formed a partnership with Rubel, in a business that was successful for many years. Eventually the partnership was dissolved, and this firm is now Benedetto Allegretti, Incorporated.

Placed Faith in Newspaper. "Was he always a newspaper advertiser?" we asked. "A confirmed one," he replied. "Each year, as the business has grown, our advertising appropriation has assumed correspondingly larger proportions."

"Then a year ago we decided to try it out on a problem that had always been a poser. It has not only solved it, but I have would sell even more, if we had it."

Advertising Sells Tons of Seconds Every Saturday. "What was the problem, and what would it all more of?" we inquired. "Seconds," he smiled, and went on to explain, in response to our blunder, than usual expression.

"We are the only people making hand made and rolled centers for chocolate candies. Our daily capacity here is about 3,000 pounds, and out of that amount, there are sometimes in the neighborhood of 1,000 pounds that are irregular or imperfect in shape."

"We have to have perfectly shaped and sized pieces in our boxes, to assure full weight, and also that they won't shake or become crushed. So by the end of the week, we usually find ourselves with a ton or a little over, of the so-called 'seconds,' which are either fresh but imperfectly shaped candies."

"Until this year it was our custom to dispose of them to the caramel makers, who melted them and used them over. But about a year ago we set about to find a way of selling them at less of a sacrifice in price."

"Our ultimate decision was to put it up to the newspapers. We began advertising these seconds at wholesale, or factory prices."

"We had been led to expect results, but not such immediate ones, or such enormous ones. It was not long before we were selling all those seconds here over the counter, and now we are selling a ton of them every Saturday, and through our newspaper advertising."

Sells $300,000 Worth of Candies Yearly. "And that is only one of the things newspaper advertising is doing for us. Among other things, it is selling $300,000 worth of candies a year for us."

"More nearly than we had any idea it would," he replied. "We are as surprised as we are gratified at the very slight effect this so-called 'poor year' has had on business, and don't hesitate to say 'be it as our advertising has made it so.'"

RECALL LOVE AFFAIRS OF BULGARIAN PRINCE COMMANDER OF ARMY.

(By Associated Press.) Sofia, Oct. 16.—The announcement that Prince Boris, the Crown Prince of Bulgaria, will be commander-in-chief of the Bulgarian Army, recalls the love affair between him and the Russian Empress's eldest daughter, the Princess Olga. The engagement, which took place at the end of the war, was a condition demanded by Russia in return for Russian recognition of Ferdinand as king.

When only four years old, the little prince astonished the Russian court on his first visit to Petrograd by his precocious knowledge of the niceties of etiquette. The rule of the Russian court gives precedence to ecclesiastics over lay dignitaries. When attending court, the child prince never made a mistake in distinguishing between the two, kissing the hands of the churchmen and presenting his own hand to the laymen to be blessed.

Not Worth Solving. "I have pondered all my life," says B. P. Walker, "on which was more important in this world, brains or money. But when I look around and see how many get along on little of either, I conclude I am wasting my time trying to solve the question."—Kansas City Star.

Want ads buy and sell.

"JUST THE THING." A tailor's world is sad. That is why most tailors suffer from constipation. G. W. Robertson, Wichita Falls, Tex., says: "I find Foley's Cathartic Tablets the most delightful, cleansing cathartic I have ever taken. They are just the thing." They keep the stomach sweet and the liver active, drive away headache, dullness, tired feeling, nervousness, biliousness, and other results of clogged bowels. Prompt and effective, without griping or pain. Stout people praise them for the light, free feeling they give. —W. T. Shorer.

Cold Weather Has Little Effect if You Are Using

Imperial Gasoline and Viscolene Lubricating Oil

That is because both are high grade. Demand them from your dealer and note the difference in the action on your motor.

KINNIE & SON
PENNSYLVANIA OILS.
417 S. Academy St. NOT IN THE TRUST.

Automobile Painting

We have added facilities for taking care of strictly high-grade automobile painting.

We anticipate a big business in this department from now on and suggest that you bring your car in early before the rush starts.

Janesville Carriage Works
Corner East Milwaukee and Bluff Streets
Janesville, Wisconsin

KEMMERER

Enlarges Mechanical Department

Owing to the increasing demands for the high grade work done by our mechanical department we have added 1250 feet of additional floor space to accommodate car owners and turn out the work in the shortest possible time.

Kemmerer Service has reached the highest point of perfection. When you want SERVICE bring your car here.

Kemmerer Garage
"THE BEST"

206-12 East Milwaukee St. Both Phones. E. A. Kemmerer, Prop.

FORESTATION PLAN CAUSES BIG MUDDLE

REPORT OF SPECIAL SUPREME COURT REFEREE REVEALS STARTLING SITUATION.

SCHOOL FUNDS SUFFER

Money Spent in Building Forest Reserve Amounting to $2,235,554 at Expense of Common Schools and University.

(By ELLIS B. USHER.)
Milwaukee, Oct. 16.—On the 7th inst. Judge Samuel B. Hastings, special referee of the supreme court of Wisconsin reported upon the financial situation developed by the decision of the court, which held that certain laws which had been enacted for forestry purposes were unconstitutional and that the administration of those laws had violated state school funds and otherwise mixed up state finances. The referee's report shows, without going into minutiae, that the general fund of the state now owes, as the result of this maladministration, to the school fund $1,751,423; to the common school fund $1,564,640; to the university fund $111,000; to the agricultural college fund $60,000; in all $3,887,063. The referee also states that the state has expended $2,235,554 in building forest reserves. The referee's report also shows that the state has expended $2,235,554 in building forest reserves. The referee's report also shows that the state has expended $2,235,554 in building forest reserves.

Attempt at Disguise.
This work of the tax commission, under a heading defined by "the work of Prof. H. C. Adams on public finance" under a classification entitled "the work of the tax commission," is a beautiful illustration of the way evil of a most serious and enduring character may be accomplished in the name of uplift, and by the most efficient and the most competent upholders. It ought to be an eye opener to the cool and overburdened taxpayers of Wisconsin.

Temperance Talks
No. 15—A Common Mistake.
(By Temperance Educational League.)
One of the erroneous notions more or less prevalent is the idea that alcohol increases one's bodily vigor. This is a mistaken idea. It is the fact that there is an apparent feeling of warmth caused by the effect of alcohol in forcing the blood to the surface.

State Assessment Raised.
As I am writing another chapter of this story comes before the public, tax commission has raised the state assessment by $12,742,253. That increases the common school tax by 10 cents, the university tax by 10 cents, and the agricultural college tax by 10 cents. The common school tax will be 10 cents, the university tax will be 10 cents, and the agricultural college tax will be 10 cents.

THOMAS McPHILLIPS DIES AT MONROE FRIDAY
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Monroe, Wis., Oct. 16.—Thomas McPhillips, a resident of this city for the past forty-three years, passed away at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning at his home in the west part of the city, after a brief illness.

ERNEST STAUFFACHER IS HURT WHEN AUTO TIPS OVER
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Monroe, Wis., Oct. 16.—Ernest J. Stauffacher, a prominent stock buyer of this city, was seriously injured in an automobile accident last night.

AGRICULTURAL and GARDEN DEPT

ALLEN B. WEST, Director

Question:—What makes so many of the apples rough and knurly? I have one tree badly affected.

Answer:—This is probably the work of the apple curculio, Anthonomus quadricornis. This insect lays its eggs in the spring soon after the fruit sets. The eggs hatch and the young curculios feed on the fruit just below the skin.

There is some difference of opinion about the value of spraying to control the curculio. It is not really affected by arsenical sprays. A certain percentage seems, however, to succumb to treatment if applied just as soon as the blossoms fall, for the beetle is known to feed upon the foliage prior to the egg laying period.

But there is work that may be done this fall to lessen the trouble another season. This consists in cleaning up the fruit which harbor the curculio. As well known injured apples are the first to fall to the ground. This affords the larva opportunity to leave apple and enter the ground where it transforms into a mature beetle.

Milton Junction News

Milton Junction, Oct. 16.—The new proprietor, Philip Bauer, of Johnson, and John Bauer, of Milwaukee, have taken possession of the meat market recently purchased from W. F. Bowers.

John Prust of Jefferson was a business caller here yesterday. Mr. C. A. Rindfleisch of Minneapolis, Minn., came last evening for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Hassinger. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Thomas of Indiana, who have been spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Alex Shuman, went to Chicago today and will leave Monday for Florida.

Among those from here who attended the baseball game at Edgerton Friday night were Carl W. C. Wall, A. M. and W. R. Thorpe, F. R. Morris, W. F. Bowers, Phil Wain, C. B. Keith, P. H. and W. R. Cole, Ralph Kaestner and Sidney Madison.

Rev. Hoesel of Milwaukee, who was here yesterday, returned from Doran, South Dakota, of the death of his brother.

Mrs. Plantz has received word from Doran, South Dakota, of the death of her brother.

Mrs. Roy Conry, who has been spending the week with Whitewater relatives, returned home today.

John Schart of Madison greeted old friends here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Butts of Delavan were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Coon of Battle Creek, Mich., who have been spending a few days at Pastor Jordan's and S. C. Chamber's homes.

William McKinley has gone to Cold Springs, where he will manage the creamery. Mrs. McKinley will join him later.

Mrs. Philip Cole spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clarke of Janesville.

Among those from here who went to Walworth last evening to attend the meetings of the S. D. B. church were Pastor Jordan, E. M. Holston and family, Mrs. Jennie Gorkin and daughter, Miss Minnie, and Miss Bird Rood.

Rev. Hoesel, who has been spending the week with E. F. Seeger and family, returned to his home in Milwaukee last evening.

Work is well performed, even though corn is frosted, contestants will go to Madison.

The corn contest boys have had a bad season for their work, a very exceptional season, as all will agree. But the Commercial club is not going to back out of their part of the contest on account of bad weather conditions.

Passenger engine 1235, of the Northern Wisconsin division, is in the roundhouse for repairs.

The employees of the store department are very busy at this time making out the general time books.

Great interest is being centered around the coming bowling match between the store department and the motive power department.

Fifteen men were taken back on the car repair department as the material for their work has arrived.

C. M. & S. P. R. R.
C. M. Russell of Milwaukee, representative of the Crosby Lake Transportation Line, was in the city this week on business.

J. L. Hurley, traveling passenger agent of the New York Central Lines, solicited business in the city Wednesday.

J. T. Crawford, traveling passenger agent of the Rock Island Lines, was a business visitor in the city on Thursday.

W. J. Sack, representative of the passenger department of the Southern Pacific railway passenger department, called on Janesville ticket agents here this week.

One of the 50 electric locomotives being delivered by the General Electric company to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul for use on the line between Harborton, Mont., and Avery, Idaho, was placed on exhibition this week at the Union station in Chicago.

WAR DOES NOT STOP THE RECORD SERVICE OF BRITISH TRAINS.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
London, Oct. 16.—In spite of wartime economies and alterations in railway time tables, England still has the fastest trains, the longest non-stop runs, and the lowest fares in the world, according to the Daily Chronicle.

The fastest train "for a fair distance," it is explained, is the morning express from London to Bristol, which makes this run of 119½ miles daily in 120 minutes. A special test trip over this route was made several years ago in exactly 84 minutes.

The longest non-stop run is by the Cornish Express, London to Exeter, 174 miles in 180 minutes. The cheapest fare is the round-trip excursion rate between London and Skegness, which offers a 224 mile trip for 75 cents, or about 4½ cent per mile.

MINISTER GIVES TESTIMONY.
The Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: For three months I suffered intense pain in kidneys and back, which at times laid me up entirely. After trying of Poley Kidney Pills without result, I decided to try the Poley treatment. I was relieved most with the first dose and it is a fact that I used only 1½ bottles when all of the pains disappeared. I am 55 years of age and now feel like a young man again.—W. T. Shorer.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR CORN CONTEST BOYS

Work is well performed, even though corn is frosted, contestants will go to Madison.

The corn contest boys have had a bad season for their work, a very exceptional season, as all will agree. But the Commercial club is not going to back out of their part of the contest on account of bad weather conditions.

Passenger engine 1235, of the Northern Wisconsin division, is in the roundhouse for repairs.

The employees of the store department are very busy at this time making out the general time books.

Great interest is being centered around the coming bowling match between the store department and the motive power department.

Fifteen men were taken back on the car repair department as the material for their work has arrived.

C. M. & S. P. R. R.
C. M. Russell of Milwaukee, representative of the Crosby Lake Transportation Line, was in the city this week on business.

J. L. Hurley, traveling passenger agent of the New York Central Lines, solicited business in the city Wednesday.

J. T. Crawford, traveling passenger agent of the Rock Island Lines, was a business visitor in the city on Thursday.

W. J. Sack, representative of the passenger department of the Southern Pacific railway passenger department, called on Janesville ticket agents here this week.

One of the 50 electric locomotives being delivered by the General Electric company to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul for use on the line between Harborton, Mont., and Avery, Idaho, was placed on exhibition this week at the Union station in Chicago.

WAR DOES NOT STOP THE RECORD SERVICE OF BRITISH TRAINS.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
London, Oct. 16.—In spite of wartime economies and alterations in railway time tables, England still has the fastest trains, the longest non-stop runs, and the lowest fares in the world, according to the Daily Chronicle.

The fastest train "for a fair distance," it is explained, is the morning express from London to Bristol, which makes this run of 119½ miles daily in 120 minutes. A special test trip over this route was made several years ago in exactly 84 minutes.

The longest non-stop run is by the Cornish Express, London to Exeter, 174 miles in 180 minutes. The cheapest fare is the round-trip excursion rate between London and Skegness, which offers a 224 mile trip for 75 cents, or about 4½ cent per mile.

MINISTER GIVES TESTIMONY.
The Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: For three months I suffered intense pain in kidneys and back, which at times laid me up entirely. After trying of Poley Kidney Pills without result, I decided to try the Poley treatment. I was relieved most with the first dose and it is a fact that I used only 1½ bottles when all of the pains disappeared. I am 55 years of age and now feel like a young man again.—W. T. Shorer.

CONVICT LABOR ON HIGHWAYS FAVORED

Board of Control Gets Favorable Response from County Board Members Throughout State.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Oct. 16.—Favorable responses are being received by the state board of control from a number of county board members of the state with reference to the proposal to furnish convict labor in highway construction next year.

H. H. Stalle, chairman of the road and bridge committee of Lincoln county, has written the board that he is in favor of the plan. He suggests, however, that the state should charge only $1 a day for convict labor on the roads at the present time receive only $1.75.

One of the fundamental troubles over our country roads is the difficulty in getting value received from the laborers, declares R. B. Perry, a member of the county board of Sauk county and president of the Reedsburg bank. "Another is the lack of scientific oversight on the part of the county commissioners. Both of these difficulties can be remedied if we will avail ourselves of your suggestion. I shall therefore go on our farm meeting firmly imbued with the notion that the matter should be taken up by you."

President Davidson's letter on this subject is meeting with many inquiries as to how the plan has worked in other states where it has been tried. A number of judges have also written in favor of the new movement, declaring that it would prove both advantageous to the state and helpful to the convict. Members of the board are elated over the responses received.

ARTHUR McLEOD SELECTED SUPREME COURT CLERK
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Oct. 16.—Arthur McLeod, for ten years private secretary and clerk to Justice R. D. Marshall of the supreme court, was yesterday selected by the court as its clerk to succeed the late Clarence Kellogg, who held the position since 1878. During the past two years McLeod has been deputy clerk to Mr. Kellogg. He was educated at Chippewa Falls and some time ago was admitted to practice law. McLeod probably holds the record of being the youngest supreme court clerk in the United States.

Have You Seen the Crowning Effort of the Acorn Stove
FACTORY?

The Greatest Success of 85 years' experience in Improving Kitchen Ranges.

The Dual Acorn
A complete Gas Range, A Complete Coal Range. All in one. Come in and Let us Demonstrate it for you. Remember this:

THE ACORN CREED IS QUALITY FIRST TALK TO LOWELL

WAR DOES NOT STOP THE RECORD SERVICE OF BRITISH TRAINS.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
London, Oct. 16.—In spite of wartime economies and alterations in railway time tables, England still has the fastest trains, the longest non-stop runs, and the lowest fares in the world, according to the Daily Chronicle.

The fastest train "for a fair distance," it is explained, is the morning express from London to Bristol, which makes this run of 119½ miles daily in 120 minutes. A special test trip over this route was made several years ago in exactly 84 minutes.

The longest non-stop run is by the Cornish Express, London to Exeter, 174 miles in 180 minutes. The cheapest fare is the round-trip excursion rate between London and Skegness, which offers a 224 mile trip for 75 cents, or about 4½ cent per mile.

MINISTER GIVES TESTIMONY.
The Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: For three months I suffered intense pain in kidneys and back, which at times laid me up entirely. After trying of Poley Kidney Pills without result, I decided to try the Poley treatment. I was relieved most with the first dose and it is a fact that I used only 1½ bottles when all of the pains disappeared. I am 55 years of age and now feel like a young man again.—W. T. Shorer.

MINISTER GIVES TESTIMONY.
The Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: For three months I suffered intense pain in kidneys and back, which at times laid me up entirely. After trying of Poley Kidney Pills without result, I decided to try the Poley treatment. I was relieved most with the first dose and it is a fact that I used only 1½ bottles when all of the pains disappeared. I am 55 years of age and now feel like a young man again.—W. T. Shorer.

MINISTER GIVES TESTIMONY.
The Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: For three months I suffered intense pain in kidneys and back, which at times laid me up entirely. After trying of Poley Kidney Pills without result, I decided to try the Poley treatment. I was relieved most with the first dose and it is a fact that I used only 1½ bottles when all of the pains disappeared. I am 55 years of age and now feel like a young man again.—W. T. Shorer.

BARKER'S CORNERS

Barker's Corners, Oct. 15.—Mrs. W. E. Shoemaker spent from Saturday till Tuesday with her daughter at Waunakee, and visited in Chicago.

Stuart Alverson is confined to his bed with pneumonia.

John Flager and family spent Sunday at A. G. Russell's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shoemaker entertained company Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis were visitors at E. Langworthy's the first of the week.

W. H. Brown came back from Clinton, Iowa, yesterday to attend to the loading of their household goods to be shipped to Clinton, Iowa, their new home.

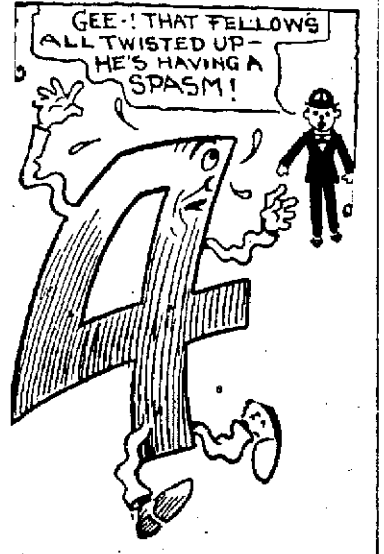

Leonard Hamilton and Leslie McKinley motored to Rockford, Peoria and Freeport Tuesday, returning today. Leonard has secured a position in a clothing store in Freeport and will go there at once to begin his duties.

Mrs. G. R. Crabtree, Misses Mary Monroe and Minnie Reimer were in

"Bell" Telephone Directory GOES TO PRESS OCTOBER 25th

All changes in present listings, and all new listings should be arranged for at once.

If you are without service, order a telephone now and your name will appear in the new book.
WISCONSIN TELEPHONE COMPANY
W. N. CASH, Mgr.
Telephone 1510

A word meaning to lose?

WOMAN'S PAGE

Married Life on $80 a Month

BY MISS DA. LIONARD

Molly Sutner was awakened by little Jack's climbing over into her bed and riding horseback by chugging up and down on her shoulder. She unhorsed the "Where's papa?" demanded the little man. "Papa's gone to work," Mamma was sick this morning and stayed in bed. "Are you sick now?" queried the child. "I'm hungry." "Mamma had a bad headache, but you were a good boy and let her sleep and it is better now and we will get up and have some breakfast." Molly threw a shawl over her head and, putting on the baby's wraps, went to have a talk with Olive. The doctor was just starting to make a call a short distance away and took Jack with him, so the women could talk undisturbed. "Last night John left the house right after supper and was gone all the evening. I had done a washing as part of a program to reduce expenses and I was very tired. You know how hard it is to get up in the morning and go down to the office and see if John was there. He sometimes has work to do evenings." "You had no one to leave little Jack with, had you?" interrupted Olive. "It is only about a ten minutes' walk. I left the house open." She stopped and looked hard at Olive. "Before I got to the office I saw him pass with a girl, the stenographer, I suppose. He did not see me." "What did you do?" "I went home and got into bed. When he came I pretended to be asleep and, after crying all night, I could not get up this morning. I leaned her head wearily on her hand. "So you have said nothing to him about it?" asked her. "Nothing. Again silence fell between them."

Heart and Home Problems

Letters May Be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, In Care of The Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) This spring I had a severe attack of irritated sore throat, and it was a long time before it was cured. Now it comes back. Some days it is awfully sore and again it will be well. The doctor tells me it is chronic. Do you think with good medical attention it will get all right again?

(2) I am 20 years of age and have been keeping steady company with a gentleman 25. He has been engaged to him for quite a while. He is saving money and never spends it foolishly. We love one another dearly. Do you think it would be all right for me to marry?

(3) Do you think, as we are engaged, it would be proper for me to permit him to kiss me? He has money to buy things that are needed for the home?

(4) Yes. (2) Yes. (3) Yes. (4) Yes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17 and am in love with a man of 21. At times he seems to think a great deal of me and at times he doesn't. He does anything that I ask him to do. Please advise me how to win his love.

TROUBLES.

Don't try to win his love, girl. You are far too young to care for a man of that age.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 19. I am living with my mother and stepfather. I do not know why my own father is as my mother has never told me. I have taken my stepfather's name to keep people from asking so many questions. I am going with a fellow who has asked me to marry him and he doesn't know that I have a stepfather. I feel as though I must tell him. Please advise me what to do as I do not know who my father is.

VIOLET.

The Social Season Requires Perfection In Your Appearance

You can easily acquire clothes perfection if your garments are always in perfect order. Not a hint of soil, not a wrinkle, show in garments that are occasionally sent to us for

Faultless Dry Cleaning

There is just as much difference in dry cleaning as in garments—our methods are such as to secure as near perfection in cleaning as is humanly possible.

Janesville Chemical Steam Dye Works

C. F. BROCKHAUS & SON.

Opposite Myers House. Both phones

CLOTHES ECONOMY

I think you ought to tell him, for your own peace of mind. Because if you begin to keep things from him it may lead to a great deal of unpleasantness. You are the only one who counts in a matter like this. What will he care who your father is?

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a blonde, 23 years old and have been keeping company with a young man of 25 for about three months. He is in every way a gentleman and does not smoke or use any kind of liquor. He is always kind to me and wants me to be his wife, but he has such a bad temper I am afraid to marry him. I love him, but the thought of that makes me hesitate. He is a barber and earns good wages.

BLUE-EYED BOBBIE.

I think you ought to know the man longer before you decide to marry him. After a year, you feel that you know him and can put up with his temper, marry him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I met a man some time ago at a dance. My parents do not like him at all and will not allow me to entertain him at home. He has asked me to marry him and if I do we will have to elope. I am a young girl and can't prevent it through the law.

ARBA.

If the young man were honorable or amounted to anything he would try to prove to your parents that he is worthy of you. If he learned why they dislike him, he could overcome his faults, or if they have misjudged him he would have a chance to show wherein they are wrong.

Since you are both of age your parents cannot prevent the marriage. Don't elope, little girl. Such a step would ruin your life. You are not old enough to know your mind or to know the grave responsibility of marriage.

Household Hints

USES FOR CRACKED FRUIT JARS AND GLASSES.

Take small square pieces of clean cheese cloth, tea spoonful of tea to each jar. The string or thread used for tying can be left long so as to lift the teaball out of the teapot when tea can be poured up. A package of tea can be done up this way and is always ready for use without having to measure it each time tea is made. Keep tea leaves from sticking in the pot and forming a crust.

Coffee can be made the same way, using larger squares of cheesecloth and one level tablespoon ground coffee to each cupful of water.

Save cracked fruit jars for such things as coffee, candied fruit, tapioca, prunes, rice, cereals, raisins, coconut, yeast cakes, lemons, etc. Stale articles, if kept in glass jars will always be clean and fresh, as no dust or insects can get into them. Then, too, there's no need looking for old jars in the pantry for the article wanted, for one can see what's in the jar without opening it.

Lemons and cheese kept in airtight jars will be fresh until used. Nutmegs, spices, grated orange peel also keep their flavor and strength. Cracked jelly glasses with covers can be used for these.

THE TABLE.

Corn Cakes to Serve with Meats—Three-quarters cup of corn (canned or fresh), one cup of milk, one cup of sugar, two eggs, one scant cup of flour, two tablespoons of baking powder, pinch of salt. To the corn add the milk, eggs, sugar and oil. Mix and bake in a moderate oven.

Frosted Apples—Take six large, perfect apples, core and stew until the skin can be peeled easily. Peel and dip each apple in clarified butter, roll in sugar, then in coconut, and fill the hollow left by the core with a spoonful of place apples in slow oven and let them remain until the sugar sparkles.

Apple Sauce Cake—Cream together one cup sugar, one-half cup butter, one egg, one teaspoonful cinnamon, pinch of nutmeg. One cupful seeded raisins; stir one teaspoonful soda into one cupful of warm apple sauce, letting it foam over the top. Add ingredients; beat all well and add last two cupfuls (scant) of flour; bake in slow oven about forty-five minutes. This makes a splendid pudding when old and dry. Steam and serve with hard sauce or whipped cream.

Peach Cake—One tablespoon butter, one cup sugar, one-half cup milk, one egg, two cups flour, one teaspoon powder, two cups flour and pinch of salt. Beat well and spread on a pie tin, cover top with peaches, hollow side up. Bake twenty minutes and serve hot with hard sauce or whipped cream.

An Ideal Complexion

Gives that snowy white complexion which fashion requires the well groomed woman to possess.

At Drugists and Department Stores

We will send a complexion cream and book of Powder Tones for 10c, to cover cost of mailing and wrapping.

FRANK T. HOKINS & SON

101 Grand Street, New York City

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

GRANNY'S FASHIONS ARE COMING BACK

Pantalets, Hoops, Mitts and Bustles, Style's Decree Now-a-Days.—What Would Grandmother Say? (By Margaret Mason.)

At pictures of your granny When she was young, my dear You used to laugh and giggle But look now in your mirror And you will plainly see You're dressed up just like granny And mighty chic you be.

New York, Oct. 15.—This year's type of girl is the Hoops, mitts, bustles and pantalets—not a thing is missing.

For two or three seasons now there has been a threat of pantalets in the offing but they have made very few appearances, they coming as they were. This year it really looks as if they were going to hang on to the lower limbs of some of our very best fashion models, however.

These really most attractive, these 1915 pantalets. Those for wear with street and daytime frocks are almost as wide and voluminous as fur-banded gowns now so popular the pantalets are also finished with a band of fur around the ankles and sometimes a ruching of the material is visible below the fur.

Charming lace and net pantalets like those we saw occasionally last season are those of a belle of the ball. A new note is struck in evening dress with a striking model of silk cut like the straight fur and a Chinese belle and banded with gold or silver galloon as a finish.

Speaking of galloon, a novel use of this material is shown in a model evening frock worn in Marie Tempest's present play. It is a gown of Pompadour silk with a tight bodice and over the full, extremely full, and short, extremely short skirt is an even fuller over-skirt of white tulle finished with a band of silver galloon around the hem caught here and there with tiny artificial nose gays. The stiff galloon acts delightfully in lieu of wire to give that desirable crinolene effect.

For yes indeed, though we aren't wearing the real old fashioned hoops yet we are getting the same results with less bulky and more sanitary contraptions, mostly wire.

While most of the wiring is done around the hem of the full skirts, yet another effect is obtained by wiring out sideways over the hips. This builds you out sideways like Velezquez's celebrated portrait of the Spanish infant.

If you don't care for these side extensions, however, Fashion is most elastic this year and allows a rear extension with equal impunity. It's the good old bustle again of course, brought up to date by being formed of rippling folds of skirt back to the little top hats worn over the breadths. This back draped bustle effect is much favored on formal evening gowns of heavy satin or velvet that are very décolleté and long of train.

Quite the most reminiscent of dear old granny's youth is a model jacket suit of black and red wool paid. It has a short full skirt and little short fur jacket which once removed reveals a started modern eyes, a little low necked waist of the plaid absolutely sleeveless day-time gown are worn quaint kid gloves reaching midway of the forearm and laced up the side.

These side-laced gloves are quite the newest feature at hand and are worn with every sort of daytime toilet. Black lace mitts are also permitted with dressy afternoon frocks. Though the gloves are laced they aren't lace you understand whereas the mitts are not laced but are lace.

The little top hats worn over one eye, the flowing window curtain veil, the little round muffs and rippling shoulder capes of fur, the extra high buttoned boots for day wear and the high ribbon laced costume shoes, all are old stuff lifted from the heyday of our granddames youth.

Quite the only thing we seem to have overlooked in our wholesale copying is of course what would be profited us the most—meaning of course her lovely old-world tact and courtesy.

SIDE TALKS —By— RUTH CAMERON

The Putter Day.

"I've had the loveliest day, today," said my neighbor when I put some "What have you been doing?" "Nothing and everything. It's been a putter day."

"What might that be?" "A day when I do all the little putter jobs that I've been meaning to get at for months and months, and always putting off until the day. I managed to get most of my routine work out of the way so that I had the day free, and I got up early and began to putter right after breakfast and puttered steadily all day."

"What did I do? Well, in the first place I went up in the attic and sorted out the pieces in my piece box. Next I reorganized my bookcases. With a big family and a big family's friends using the books, and with new books being added, the cases will get all mixed up and I don't want to take stock now and then to know how to find anything."

"Then I looked over my wardrobe, picked out what I could give away and put it in the charity bag. Sorting Out the Year's Letters.

"I've had the loveliest day, today," said my neighbor when I put some "What have you been doing?" "Nothing and everything. It's been a putter day."

"What might that be?" "A day when I do all the little putter jobs that I've been meaning to get at for months and months, and always putting off until the day. I managed to get most of my routine work out of the way so that I had the day free, and I got up early and began to putter right after breakfast and puttered steadily all day."

"What did I do? Well, in the first place I went up in the attic and sorted out the pieces in my piece box. Next I reorganized my bookcases. With a big family and a big family's friends using the books, and with new books being added, the cases will get all mixed up and I don't want to take stock now and then to know how to find anything."

"Then I looked over my wardrobe, picked out what I could give away

HEALTH TALKS By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

A Member Rises to Testify.

Dear Doctor, writes a traveling salesman, I picked up the paper one day about three months ago and noticed your appeal for help. I generally just scan. One thing you said struck me right where I live, and I want to tell you my experience. I am a traveling salesman and time of it with insomnia. Got all wrought up over my work and hard times and all, so I couldn't sleep. Lost considerable weight and became very nervous. Fell down on my knees and in fact was going to the bad.

Then, smart aleck, you know, I went over the head of the local doctor—thought he was a fox and so right to the expert. I consulted a well-known nerve specialist. He gave me some special test or other, and told me twenty-five bones. It was negative. (Then he said I had neurasthenia. Ordered me to go to a sanitarium. I beat it for home, because I had no money for sanitarium treatment.)

I fussed around from one thing to another, including a fling at osteopathy and a bit of Christian Science. None of the time I kept getting worse if anything. I was a sorry specimen. Then I picked up the paper one day and lamped your little boost for the family doctor. I went right down to the doctor and he gave me a crackerjack examination. He certainly did—he went through me from top to bottom. Guess what he told me. Lead poisoning! Yes, sir, chronic lead poisoning—in both arms, anæmia and what-you-call-it—stripped blood corpuscles, or something of the kind. Doc put me on salts and some other medicine, and in a month I was feeling right in form.

Now, how did I get it? Doc doesn't know, but I suspect a kind of a queer thing. For years I've been applying a powder to my nose—make white—my wife gets it for me. I dab it on several times a day, to cover my red proboscis, so they won't think I'm hitting the can. Well, Doc says he believes the cause may be lead, and that it caused my trouble. I'm using plain thank you and your cocky little Health Talks for saving my life! Go to it, you're a public benefactor! You saved me from lead poisoning. Hereafter the family doctor for mine.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Acknowledgment.

"Doc" is eminently correct in his suspicion. Flake white contains lead and has caused more than one case of obscure lead poisoning. Stripped red corpuscles are characteristic of lead poisoning.

How to Find Out About Tapeworm.

In what way would one discover the tapeworm? Answer—By finding segments in the alvine evacuations. The segments may be single or in long strings, like flat beads on a string. Yellowish white, some one-quarter to one-half inch wide, and one-half to one inch long. Or by having a laboratory examination of the stools, to find the tapeworm eggs under the microscope.

Germ-Proofing a Razor.

How could a razor be made germ-proof?

Answer—By boiling, or by steam sterilization; or by letting it stand half an hour in a five per cent. solution of carbolic acid. This must be done each time before it is used.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY WILL MEET NEXT THURSDAY

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Madison, Wis., Oct. 15.—Announcement is made by the State Historical society of the sixty-third annual

Helpful HEALTH HINTS

Health is the practical secret of success. Without it opportunity means little.

Many good qualities are not sufficient to offset a single want—the want of health.

The man who sleeps in a poorly ventilated room is incapacitated for his best efforts next day.

Mankind in the gross, is a gaping monster that loves to be deceived and has seldom been disappointed.

Life is a sequence—this happened today because you did that yesterday. Tomorrow will be the result of today.

The best doctor is not the man who knows the greatest number of facts, but he whose mind is always active and always in working order.

The danger in all disease conditions lies in the remedy and not in the ailment. When treated osteopathically, the natural healing powers of the body are decidedly increased and the disease process discouraged. Osteopathy builds up, while drugs tear down.

Copyright 1915 by Williams Publishing Co. All rights reserved.

meeting to be held here Oct. 21. Papers will be read by Galliard Hunt, chief of the division of manuscripts of the library of congress; by Dr. W. F. White of Madison on early settlements in Dodge county; by Eugene F. Prussing of Chicago, on Chicago's first lawsuit; by Hjalmar R. Holand on a record of Rock Island, the three-horned Nilsassin, and by O. E. Leafitt of Superintendent M. M. Qualife.

WOMEN WINDOW WASHERS IN LONDON ARE WEARING TROUSERS ON THE JOB.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

London, Oct. 16.—Shortage of male labor in Nottingham has led to the employment of a number of young women as window cleaners in the business district. Skirts being dangerous for ladder-climbing, the workwomen are clad in men's attire.

Such is Frail Humanity.

"Many a man," said Uncle Eben, "dat kin hesitate or tango for miles while de music is goin' couldn't be persuaded to walk two blocks to de grocery store."

New Phone: Office Black 224. Residence 1321. Bell Phone, office, 675.

Dr. Emil Schwegler

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

Office hours: 9-12 a. m., 2-5 p. m. 402 Jackson Bldg. Janesville, Wis. Osteopathic Literature on Request.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

—LEVY'S—

Has your figure lost some of its good lines

thru the wearing of the "topless," "boneless" Corsets of a season or so ago?

If it HAS—and this has been the case with many women—NEW STYLE CORSETS are absolutely essential if your figure is to reflect the new lines of fashion. See the new bust-line, the new curve-in at the waist, and other new features in the famous

Holaset For Fall

Front Laced Corsets

They are improving the lines of all types of figures when perfectly fitted by our expert Corsetieres!

Scores of "C. E-Z" Lights Being Installed Daily

The popularity of the "C. E-Z" Light as a home light is indicated by the fact that our representatives are installing scores of them daily in Janesville homes.

This light is simplicity itself. It consists of a burner, three small mantles, self-lighter, shade ring and shade—price $1.25.

Without the shade and shade ring the light sells for 90c. It can be used with the shade ordinarily used with open flame gas burners.

These lights are sold on easy payments by our representatives and at our store.

New Gas Light Company of Janesville

7 North Main Street

Both Phones 113

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Mother Took Too Much For Granted, That's All.

BY P. LEIPZIGER

The Battle-Cry

By CHARLES NEVILLE BUCK
Author of
"The Call of the Cumberland"

Illustrations by C. D. Rhodes

(Copyright by Charles Neville Buck.)

At that instant it was Young Milt whose face went first red and then very white.

"That calls for a fight, Jeb," he said with forced calm. "I can't harken to things like that. But first I want to say this: I come over here to tell you that I know how you feel, and that I don't see no reason why you and me had to quarrel. I come over here to see you, because I promised I wouldn't try to see her whilst she stayed down at the school—'an' because I want to see her—'an' 'lows her to hit. Now will ye lay aside your gun and go out there in that road where hit hasn't on your own ground, 'an' let me tell ye that ye lied when ye slurred my folks?"

The two boys stripped off their coats in guaranty that neither had hidden a weapon. Then, while the girl, who was really no longer a girl, turned back into the front cabin and threw herself face downward on her feather bed, they silently crossed the stile into the road and Milt turned to repeat: "Jeb, that war a lie ye spoke, 'an' I want ye to fight me fair. Hit an' skill, 'an' when we get through, of ye feels like hit, we'll shake hands. You an' me ain't no cause for quarrel." And so the boy in each of them, which was the boxer part of each, came to the surface, and into a bitter and long-fought battle of fists and wrestling, in which both of them rolled in the dust, and each of them obstinately refused to say "enough," they submitted their long-fostered hostility to one fierce debate. At last, as the two lay panting and bloodied there in the road, it was Jeb who rose and held out his hand.

"So for us the two of us goes, Milt," he said, "unless there war lots more here, I reckon we'll be friendly." Together they rose and recrossed the stile and washed their grimed faces. Dawn looked down on one to the other, and Jeb said: "Milt, set yourself a cheer. I reckon ye'd better stay all night. It's most too far to ride back."

And so, though they did not realize it, the two youths who were to stand some day near the heads of the two factions, had set a new precedent and had fought without guns, as men had fought before the feud began.

Jeb kicked off his shoes and lay down, and before the flaming logs sat the Havesy girl and the McBriar boy talking.

CHAPTER XVIII.

When winter has come and settled down for its long siege in the Cumberland human life shrinks and shrivels into a shivering wretchedness, and a spirit of dreariness steals into the human heart.

The house of old Milt McBriar was not so dark and cheerless a hovel as the houses of his lesser neighbors, but as that winter closed in his heart was bitter and his thoughts were black. In a roundabout way he had learned of Young Milt's visit to the McNash cabin. His son was the apple of his eye, and now he was seeing him form embryonic affiliations with the people of his enemy.

Young Milt had visited Dawn; he had watched with Anse Havesy. The father had always taken a natural pride in the honesty that gleamed from his son's alert eyes, and the one person from whom he had concealed his own ways of guile and deceit most studiously was the lad who would some day be leader in his stead. There were few things that this old intriguer feared, but one there was, and now it was tracing lines of care and anxiety in the visage that had always been so masklike and imperturbable. If his son should ever look past his outward self and catch a glimpse of the inner man, the father knew that he would not be able to sustain the scorn of these younger eyes. So, while the lad, who had gone back to college in Lexington, conned his books, his father sat before the blaze of his hearth, his pipe tight clamped between his teeth, his heart festering in his breast, and his mind dangerously active.

The beginnings of all the things which he deplored, and meant to punish, went back to the establishment of a school with a "fetched-on" teacher. Had Dawn McNash not come there, his boy's feet would not have gone wandering westward over the ridge, straying out of partisan paths. The slimmest of her body, the lure of her violet eyes, and the dusky meshes of her dark hair had led his own son to guard the roof that sheltered her against the hand of arson the father had hired.

But most of all, Anse Havesy was responsible: Anse Havesy who had persuaded his son to make common cause with the enemy. For that Anse Havesy must die.

Heretofore Old Milt had struck only at lesser men, fearing the retribution of too audacious a crime, but now his venom was acute, and even such grave considerations as the danger of a holocaust must not halt its appeasement. Still the mind of Milt McBriar, the elder, had worked long in intrigues, and even now it could not follow a direct line. In the road, his taking off must be accomplished by a shrewd method, and one not directly traceable to so palpable a motive as his own hatred. Such a plan his brain was working out, but for its execution he needed a hand of craft and force—such a hand as only Luke Thixton could supply—and Luke was out West.

It was not his intention to rush hastily into action. Some day he would go down to Lexington and Luke should come East to meet him. There, a hundred and thirty miles from the hills, the two of them would arrange matters to his own satisfaction. Roger Malcolm had gone back, and he had not, after all, gone back with a conqueror's triumph. He was now discussing in directors' meetings plans looking to a titanic grouping of interests which were to focalize on these hills and later to bring developments. The girl's school was gradually making itself felt, and each day saw small classes at the desk and blackboard—small classes that were growing larger.

Now that Milt had laid the groundwork of his plans, he was making the field follow by a seeming of general beneficence. His word had gone out along the creeks and branches and into the remote corners of his territory that it "wouldn't hurt folks none to give their children a little learning."

In response to that hint they trooped in from the east, wherever the roads could be traveled. Among those who "hitched an' lighted" at the fence were not only parents who brought their children, but those who came impelled by that curiosity which lurks in lonely lives. There were men in jeans and hickory shirts; women in gay shawls and linsey-woolsey and calico; people from "back of beyond," and Juanita felt her heart beat faster with the hope of success.

His Pipe Clamped Between His Teeth, His Heart Festering in His Breast.

"I hear ye've got a right plentiful gatherin' of young barbarians over there at the college these days," said Anse Havesy one afternoon, when they met up on the ridge.

Her chin came up proudly and her eyes sparkled.

"It has been wonderful," she told him. "Only one thing has marred it."

"What's that?" he asked.

"Your aloofness. Just because I'm going to smash your wicked regime," she laughed, "is no reason why you should remain peeved about it and

He was looking at her and his hands slowly clenched. Her beauty, with the enthusiasm lighting her eyes, made him feel like a man whose thirst was killing him and who gazed at a clear spring beyond his reach—or, like the caravan driver whose sight is tortured by a mirage. He drew a long breath, then added:

"I've got another reason 'an' a stronger one for not comin' over there very often. Any time ye wants me for anything I reckon ye knows I'll come."

"What is your reason?" she demanded.

"I ain't never been much interested in any woman." He held her eyes so directly that a warm color suddenly flooded her cheeks, then he went on with naked honesty and an unconcealed bitterness of heart: "When I puts myself in the way of havin' to love one, I'll pick a woman that won't have to be ashamed of me—some mountain woman."

For an instant she stared at him in astonishment, then she exclaimed: "Ashamed of you! I don't think any woman would be ashamed of you, Mr. Havesy," but, recognizing that her voice had been overbearing, she laughed, and once more her eyes danced with gay mischief.

"Don't be afraid of me. I promise not to make love to you."

"I'm obliged," he said slowly. "That ain't what I'm steerin' of. I'm afraid ye couldn't hardly stop me from makin' love to you."

He paused, and the badinage left her eyes.

"Mr. Havesy," she said with great seriousness, "I'm glad ye said that. It gives us a chance to start honestly, as all true friendship should start. In some things any woman is wiser than any man. You won't fall in love with me. You thought you were going to hate me, but you don't."

"God knows I don't," he fiercely interrupted her.

"Neither will you fall in love with me. You told me once of your superior age and wisdom, but in some things you are still a boy. You are a very lonely boy, too—a boy with a heart hungry for companionship. You have had friends only in books—comradship only in dreams. You have lived down there in that old prison of a house with a sword of Damocles hanging always over your head. Because we have been in a way congenial, you are mistaking our friendship for danger of love."

Danger of love! He knew that it had gone past a mere dare, and his eyes for a moment must have shown that he realized his hopelessness, but Juanita shook her head and went on: "Don't do it. It would be a pity. I'm rather hungry, too, for a friend; I don't mean for a friend in my work, but a friend in my life. Can't we be friends like that?"

She stood looking into his eyes, and slowly the drawn look of gravity left his face.

He had always thought quickly and dared to face realities. He was now facing his hardest reality. He loved her with utter hopelessness. Her eyes told him that it must always be just that way, and yet she had appealed to him—she had said she needed his friendship. To call it love would make it necessary for her to decline it. Henceforth life for Anse Havesy was to mean a heartache, but if she wanted his allegiance she might call it what she would. It was hers.

Swiftly he vowed in his heart to set a seal on his lips and play the part she had assigned to him.

"I'm right glad ye said that," he answered her. "I reckon ye're right. I reckon we can go on fightin' and bein' friends. Ye see, as I said, I didn't know much about womenfolks, 'an' because I liked ye I was worried."

She nodded understandingly.

Suddenly he bent forward and his words broke impetuously from his lips.

"Do ye 'low to marry that man Malcolm?" He came a step toward her, then raising his hand swiftly, he added: "No—don't answer that question! That's your business. I didn't have no license to ask. Besides, I don't want ye to answer it."

"It's a bargain, isn't it?" she smiled. "Whenever you get lonely over there by yourself and find that Hamlet isn't as lively a companion as you want, or that Alexander the Great is a little too fond of himself, or Napoleon is over-moody, come over here and we'll try to cheer each other up."

"I reckon," he said with an answering smile, "I'm liable to feel that way tonight, but I ain't comin' to learn civilization. I'm just comin' to see you."

CHAPTER XIX.

Once, when Anse Havesy had been tramping all afternoon through the wintry woods with Juanita, he had pointed out a squirrel that sat erect on a branch high above them with its tail curled up behind it. He had stopped her with a touch on the arm; then, with a smile of amusement, he handed her his rifle with much the same manner that she might have handed him a novel in Russian, and his eyes said banteringly: "See what you can do with that."

But to his surprise she took the gun and leveled it as one accustomed to its use. Bad Anse Havesy forgot the squirrel and saw only the slim figure in its loose sweater; only the stray wisps of curling hair and the softness of the cheek that snuggled against the rifle stock. Then, at the report, the squirrel dropped.

She turned with a matter-of-fact nod and landed back the gun.

"I'm rather sorry I killed it," she said, "but you looked so full of scorn that I had to show you. You know, they do have a few rifles outside the Cumberland mountains."

"Where did you learn to shoot?" he demanded, and she answered casually: "I used to shoot a rifle and pistol, too, quite a good bit."

He took the gun back, and unconsciously his hand caressed the spot where her cheek had laid against its lock. He had fallen into a reverie out of which her voice called him. They had crossed the ridge itself and were overlooking his place.

"Why are they clearing that space behind your house? Are you going to put it in corn?"

"No," he laughed shortly. "Corn would be just about as bad as laurel."

He was instantly sorry he had said that. He had not meant to tell her of the plans he was making—plans of defense and, if need be, of offense. He had not intended to mention his precautions to prevent assassination at his own door or window.

But the girl understood, and her voice was heavy with anxiety as she demanded: "Do you think you're in danger, Anse?"

"There's never a day I'm not in danger," he replied casually. "I've got pretty well used to it."

"But some day," she broke out, "they'll get you."

He shrugged his shoulders. "Maybe," he said.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Dinner Stories

"Doctor," said the man with the alcoholic breath, "I'm troubled with black specks before my eyes. Do you think I ought to use glasses?"

"No," replied the medical man; "I think you ought to stop using them."

"I'll give that waiter," said a customer in a quick-lunch room, "an order that will simply paralyze him."

BUT YOUR COAL NOW!

BETTER BE SAFE THAN SORRY

You will be safe if you order our

DEEP VEIN PITSTON

High in Heat Guaranteed Coal.

You may be sorry if you don't. THEN WHY SPECULATE?

We furnish the coal under a Guarantee of Entire Satisfaction, and make YOU the JUDGE.

If not satisfactory, no matter what the cause, we will exchange the coal, or refund money paid without exception or argument.

VULCAN COKE "The Ideal Fuel". Best because it is all heat producing, burns down to no ash.

PINE OR MAPLE CLIPPINGS. For starting fires or to make a hot blaze for cooking.

Consumer's Pure Ice & Fuel Company

Pure Lake Ice
N. River and Ravine Sts. Both phones 407.
C. B. Farnum, Sec'y. and Mgr.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED

Free Proof To You

All I want is your name and address so I can send you a free trial treatment. I want you just to try this treatment—that's all—just try it. That's my only argument.

I've been in the drug business in Fort Wayne for 20 years, nearly everyone knows me and knows about my successful treatment. Over three thousand people outside of Fort Wayne have, according to their own statements, been cured by this treatment since I first made this offer public.

If you have Eczema, Itch, Salt Rheum, Tetter—never mind how bad—my treatment has cured the worst cases I ever saw—give me a chance to prove my claim.

Send me your name and address on the coupon below and get the trial treatment I want to send you FREE. The wonders accomplished in your own case will be proof.

CUT AND MAIL TODAY

J. C. HUTZELL, Druggist, 931 West Main St., Fort Wayne, Ind.

Please send without cost or obligation to me your Free Proof Treatment.

Name..... Age.....

Post Office..... State.....

Street and No.....

SOMEBODY WANTS IT

Benedetto Allegretti makes chocolate candies, the centers of which are made and shaped by hand.

Out of a daily capacity of some 3,000 pounds, there are several hundred pounds of imperfectly shaped pieces, that can not be put in the boxes without skimping the weight.

Until a year ago he sold these seconds to caramel makers. Then he decided there must be a way of disposing of them without sacrifice, even at a modest profit.

HE FIGURED THAT SOMEONE WANTED THEM. So he started a newspaper advertising campaign of fresh seconds at factory prices.

The newspapers are now selling a ton of these seconds for him every Saturday, and $300,000 worth of candies all told, yearly.

Are YOU getting sufficient profit out of every item of YOUR business?

SOMEBODY WANTS IT BADLY ENOUGH TO PAY YOU A LEGITIMATE PROFIT FOR IT.

ARE YOU REACHING THEM?

Read elsewhere in this issue how Allegretti reaches them, and then let us show YOU not only how to reach the people who already want your goods, but HOW TO MAKE THEM ATTRACTIVE TO EVERYBODY.

THE DAILY GAZETTE

Money-Making Ways of Using Want Ads

No.5—How Want Ads Will Help a Small Business Grow

There is really no limit to what Want Ads can do to put life into small business enterprises. You want more customers, more capital, or something else to help you grow in a business sense. The Want Ad is always ready and always willing.

Here are some Want Ad ideas in this connection:

HOW TO GET MORE CUSTOMERS

THIS AD IS GOOD FOR 10% ON any suit or hat in this store. I have changed a price tag. If the value is not easily as great as the original price plus another 25% don't take the goods. I'd rather pay you than pay a collector or big advertising bill. Come at once! Address.....

HOW TO GET A PARTNER

I CAN SHOW YOU 25% ON YOUR money plus a salary of $25.00 weekly if you are open for a good thing. My business needs from $2,000 to $5,000. It is growing fast and I need a big stock of goods. Don't say you are not interested. Learn my address and also 60-day order to buy an interest. No agents or loan companies. Reply at once to (Address.....)

SELLING THROUGH SOLICITORS

A YOUNG, AMBITIOUS MAN OR woman can make $1 to $3 daily taking orders for my suits, under my special clothing, premium and contract plans. Come in person at once to (Address.....)

BORROWING MONEY THROUGH

WANTED—$1,000 SECURED BY a business of $4,750 monthly. Will give notes, insurance security and special clothing, premium and contract plans. Come in person at once to (Address.....)

Keep After Business Through Want Ads

Every day the way is open to you to increase your business through these columns. Plan after plan will unfold itself to you once you have started.

Begin now! This should be the turning point for larger and better business!

The Want Ad Will Make Your Business Grow!

THE RATE FOR ADVERTISEMENTS in these columns is one cent per word per insertion. Nothing less than 25c accepted. Cash discount 25 per cent if paid at time order is given. Charge accounts 1 cent per word.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

WHEN YOU THINK OF Insurance, think of C. F. DEBERS. 1-28-44.
HAZOKS HONED—25c. Premo Bros. 27-44.

RUGS RUGS RUGS

Cleaned thoroughly. Sized. Made New. Phone 321 and 1148. C. F. Brockhaus and Son.

HOUSE CLEANING BY VACUUM PROCESS. Frank H. Porter. New phone 1028. 1-9-13-44.
For stove and furnace repair and the work. Talk to Lowell. 49-28.
Save money on Trunks and Valises. Sadler, Court St. Bridge. 1-10-14-44.

SITUATION WANTED, MALE

YOUNG MARRIED MAN wants work on farm by the Wis. R. F. D. No. 2. 2-10-16-34.

WORK WANTED—Cleaning floors, windows, wall paper, painting, kalsomining, floor refinishing, yards raked and lawns mowed. By E. J. McDowell, care Baker's Drug Store, both phones 10. 2-10-13-71.

WANTED—Position on farm by month or year. Married. Experienced. Good milkers. Can give references. Geo. H. Rie, 35 Clinton Junction, Wis. 4-10-11-61.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Lady solicitors for Janesville and vicinity. Must be of good address and have first class references as to ability and character. Steady and pleasant work and good pay to those who qualify. Address 24 Gazette. 4-10-15-21.

SECOND GIRL—55. Girls for private houses and hotels. Mrs. E. McCarthy, both phones. 4-10-7-44.

MALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Married man to work on farm by year, must furnish references. Address A. B. Gazette. 5-10-13-33.

WANTED—At once: Young men for automobile business. Big pay. You must be expert in car and have good pay us after we secure your position. Century Automobile Institute, Los Angeles, Cal. 5-10-16-11.

SALESMAN WANTED—To sell office supplies, desks, chairs, typewriters. Good proposition. Address G. S. M. care Gazette. 5-10-15-31.

WANTED—A man to work on a farm. Call Red 638. 10-14-34.

WANTED—An experienced Accident Insurance agent at Janesville to represent one of the best commercial and industrial insurance companies. Address: E. J. Vogt, 715 Madison, Wis. 5-10-11-61.

AGENTS WANTED

WE STRIVE to keep from this page all unreliable firms. Let us know if you answer a fake. We will prosecute them.

AGENTS—Make $5,000 this year, be your own boss, independent, abundant money; your time your own; all or spare time; at home or traveling. Write E. M. Peitman, Sales Agent, 3620 Third St., Cincinnati, O. 5-10-16-11.

AGENTS—Here's the best line of food favors, perfumes, stationery, etc., ever offered. No capital needed. Complete outfits furnished free to workers. Write today for full particulars. American Products Co., 3621 Third St., Cincinnati, O. 5-10-16-11.

SALESMEN—Pocket side line. New line position, all merchants in towns of 100,000 and under want it. Pays $5.00 commission on each sale. No collecting, no risk to merchant. No take back. Complete outfit furnished free to workers. Write today for full particulars. American Products Co., 3621 Third St., Cincinnati, O. 5-10-16-11.

SALESMAN—Capable specialty man for Wisconsin. Staple line on New and Exceptional terms. Vanceny now. Address: Commissionary, care of the weekly for expenses. Miles F. Bixler, Co., 298-41 Carlin Bldg., Cleveland, O. 5-10-16-11.

WANTED—Men in this and surrounding towns to take orders for our high grade goods. Liberal terms, pay weekly. Allen Nursery Company, Rochester, N. Y. 5-10-15-74.

HELP WANTED

WANTED—Experienced shoe workers, male and female, on women's shoe in all departments. Good wages and steady work. Address Frank J. Fritz, Southland Factory, Lynchburg, Va., for further information. 5-10-16-11.

WANTED—At once 25 men and women solicitors. Apply at Klans, 27 W. Milwaukee St. 5-9-25-11.

WANTED—Loan of $120.00 on Rock County real estate. Best of security. Address "A" care Gazette. 6-10-15-21.

WANTED, MISCELLANEOUS

WOULD LIKE TO RENT good dry carriage house or barn to store boat and auto truck for winter. Walter Holme, 29 So. Main St. 6-10-16-34.

WANTED—Farm to rent on halves or thirds, by married man. References given. Address Tennant, care Gazette. 6-10-16-21.

WANTED—Work resending cane-seated chairs. Mrs. Jens Eversen. Bell phone 818. 6-10-14-31.

WANTED—By man and wife, place on farm. Home or cottage to live at. Take care of during winter months. Address "Home," care Gazette. 6-10-14-31.

WANTED—Cheap. Second-hand typewriter, visible. Must be in good condition and a bargain. What have you? Address "Typewriter," care Gazette. 6-10-14-31.

WANTED—500 lbs. clean wiping rags. Gazette. 8-3-44.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished large south room. Heat, bath. 623 So. Main. Blue 563. 9-10-16-30.

FOR RENT—Front room, furnished. Board if desired. 628 N. Washington St. 5-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—Modern furnished rooms for light housekeeping to right parties. Ladies preferred. 213 Dodge St. Bell phone 1655. 8-10-16-21.

FOR RENT—Strictly modern furnished steam heated room. 52 S. Main St. Bell phone 464. 8-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—Front room, furnished. Board if desired. 628 N. Washington St. 8-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—Pleasant furnished room. 1st floor. Inquire at Franklin St. 8-10-14-31.

BOARD AND ROOM TO RENT

WANTED—Two ladies or two gentlemen to board and room. Address "A. B. Gazette." 9-10-14-31.

ONE LOST AD RECOVERS A COAT

The majority of the people of Janesville are honest and will not willfully keep an article they find if there is any way of finding the owner.

It took only one insertion of this advertisement—

LOST—Butcher's blue coat, Sunday, Oct. 10. Finder please return to or notify Gazette.

to recover the coat, which was brought to the Gazette the morning after the advertisement appeared.

The public turns to the Want Ad page of the Gazette when some want is to be filled.

All you have to do to reach the attention of all of Rock County is to write an advertisement and pay the small sum of 10 per word per insertion.

FLATS FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Cozy 5 room modern flat; also 3 bedrooms and modern eight room house. E. N. Fredendall. Both phones. 45-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—Seven room flat on Lincoln St. modern conveniences. Inquire 412 So. Academy. 45-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—Four room flat, 811 Glen St. Old phone 1091. 45-10-12-31.

FOR RENT—Four room flat, 21 N. Pearl. Mrs. W. S. Sutton. 45-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—Five room flat; bath, gas, stove heat. 709 Glen St. Call after 3 P. M. or phone 864 black. 45-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—Lower flat, modern. Apply Mrs. Edward Smith, 217 Dodge St. old phone. 45-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—A 5-room flat by Carpenter & Carpenter. 45-10-14-31.

FOR RENT—Modern 8-room flat. Call 709 Glen; phone 864 black. 10-9-15-31.

FOR RENT—Small ground flat, with gas stove and heater, at 241 Peace Court. 45-10-15-33.

FOR RENT—Lower flat, 5 rooms, furnished or unfurnished. Furnace, gas. New phone, black 719. 45-10-16-31.

HOUSES FOR RENT

FOR RENT—House 327 Madison St. New phone 780 blue. 11-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—One side of double house, 236 E. Main St. City and soft water, gas, rent reasonable. 11-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—House on Pearl St. Inquire 1215 Mineral Pt. Ave. New Phone 822 Red. 11-10-16-31.

FOR RENT—Modern six room house on West Pleasant St. Call 1314 Pleasant St. 11-10-14-31.

FOR RENT—House 1420 Ravine St. Mrs. H. H. Blanchard, 915 Prospect Avenue. 11-10-14-31.

FOR RENT—Part of house, 725 Milton Ave. 11-10-14-41.

FOR RENT—One side double house, 410 Terrace street. 11-10-14-31.

FOR RENT—6 room house, new furnace, electric lights, hard and soft water. Acre of land or garden, 449 Ringold St., 1420 old phone. 11-10-14-31.

FOR RENT—Half of double house, 824 Milton Ave. Bell phone 1414. 11-10-14-31.

FOR RENT—House and flats, 451 No. Madison St. 11-10-12-44.

FOR RENT—Modern dwelling, seven rooms, 611 Court St. Carter & Morse. 11-9-11-11.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS For Sale

FOR SALE—Kitchen range, all in good shape. 456 Chatham St. 13-10-16-31.

FOR SALE—Furnishings for five room flat; stove, bed room, suite, tables, chairs, etc. 204 Cherry St. 10-9-16-31.

FOR SALE—Parlor cabinet and pictures. 810 Clark St. 13-10-15-31.

PLANTS AND SEEDS

FOR SALE—Bulbs for fall planting, also red, white and pink peony roots, 25c and 50c each. Chas. Rathjen, Florist, 413 West Milwaukee St. Bell phone 186, Rock Co. 1077. We deliver to all parts of city. 23-10-14-30.

FOR SALE, MISCELLANEOUS

RAYO LAMPS: Easy to the eyes. Ideal home light. Talk to Lowell. 13-10-16-31.

WASHING MACHINES. Benches, Tubs, Wringers. All sold on easy payments. Talk to Lowell. 13-10-16-31.

FOR SALE—Coal stove and buggy. L. A. Babcock, 415 So. Bluff. 13-10-16-31.

FOR SALE—2nd hand Art Garland and heater. Reasonable price. 611 Western Ave. New phone 127 white. 16-10-16-31.

ALMOST NEW GAS RANGE, $9.00. Also Gas Range $15.00, worth $25. Easy payments. Talk to Lowell. 13-10-16-31.

WHY LIGHT A BIG FURNACE to kill a little bug. Perfection smokeless Oil Heater, ten hours on one gallon kerosene. Talk to Lowell. 13-10-16-31.

FOR SALE—Folding Kodak and complete outfit for finishing pictures; also supplies. $5.00. A bargain. Call 17 No. Main St. 13-10-16-21.

FOR SALE—One 12 gauge L. C. Smith hammerless D. B. shot gun, loading tools and shells, one 8 gauge D. B. goose gun and loading tools, one power horse clipper, all of the above in A. 1 condition, can be seen at 402 Locust St., or call 257 R. Co. 357 Bell. 13-10-13-31.

FOR SALE—Number of left over fluff rugs, various sizes. Janesville Rug Co. 13-10-11-41.

FOR SALE—Religious articles, crucifixes, prayer books, etc., at St. Joseph's convent. 13-10-11-41.

FOR SALE—Onions. Bell phone 1428. 13-10-9-12-31.

BICYCLE SUPPLIES—Premo Brothers. 13-11-29-41.

FOR SALE—Old newspapers, 5 cents a bundle. Gazette Office. 12-6-14-41.

PAPER TOWELS AND FIXTURES

Sanitary and economical for schools and public buildings, factories, work rooms, etc., indispensable for the kitchen, 25c per roll, $9 case of 36 rolls. Gazette Printing Dept., Phone 77-4 rings Bell, 27 Rock Co. 13-12-41.

FOR SALE—Complete map of Rock County, showing all roads, school houses, churches, towns, villages, cities, railroads, farms with number of acres and all information. Printed on strong bond paper, handy size, Price 25c, extra strong map, cloth backed, 50c, or free with a year's advance subscription to the Daily Gazette. 45-10-16-31.

FOR SALE—Large warehouse hand truck, 7-foot long made of hand-lime heavy barrels, rolls of paper, etc. Cost $25.00, price $10.00. Gazette Office. 13-11-13-41.

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

FOR SALE—New and second-hand carom and pocket billiard tables, bowling alloys and accessories, bar fixtures of all kinds. Easy payments. Write to THE PEOPLES, The Brunswick-Balke-Comptroller Co., 27-279 West Water street, Milwaukee. 16-6-14-41.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES

FOR SALE—Black work horse, 1500 lbs. A. A. Russell & Co. 26-10-16-31.

FOR SALE—Gentle driving horse, with buggy, harness, etc. Bargain for quick sale. New phone blue 721, bell 1136. 26-10-14-31.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Fine improved farm of 160 acres, 2 miles from Milton, good buildings, 55 acres seeded; will take house and lot as part payment, easy terms. Address, "Farm," 33-10-15-31.

FOR SALE—Two well improved farms in Sargent county, North Dakota. Price and terms right. A. L. Freeman, care "Owner," Oakes, N. D. 33-10-12-31.

FOR SALE—Fine stock, dairy and grain farm, 157 acres. Three miles from Footville condenser, creamery and good market. Six acres alfalfa, 30 acres permanent pasture, no marsh land on farm. Ten room house, barn 30x40, cow barn 30x40, stanchions for 18 cows, stone basements; good frame 10-acre tobacco barn with square for 8 or 10 cows under one end; sprinkler for 24 feet square; corn crib 20x22; stone smoke house; chicken house and other outbuildings. Well watered by never failing spring brook. Reasonable amount could be left on farm. Inquire F. W. Clemons, Jackson Bldg. 33-10-10-31.

FARM FOR SALE—We have a nice 75 acre Rock County farm for sale. John and Roger G. Cunningham, 304 Jackson block, Janesville. 33-10-11-41.

FOR SALE—40 acres rich clay loam, all good tobacco land, half of it stock pasture for the past forty years. Just outside city limits. Geo. Woodruff, R. C. phone White 1392. 33-10-5-41.

FOR SALE—Seventy acres choice land. Best location in Rock county. A bargain. Easy terms. Geo. Woodruff, Janesville, Wis. Rock County phone 1392 white. 33-9-4-41.

I OFFER FOR SALE—At a very reasonable price, my Rock County modern house on Carlington street, adjoining Senator Whitehead's new home. Furnace, bath, hardwood floors, barn, sewerage in all streets paved. Fine outlook. J. S. Fitch. 33-3-23-41.

FOR SALE, RENT OR TRADE—Modern 8 room house, centrally located. E. N. Fredendall, new phone 103. 33-10-13-31.

LIVESTOCK

LOST—Black cow, about 200 pounds. Phone W. S. Agnew, Milton Jct. 25-10-16-31.

FOR SALE—One good cow. Mrs. S. E. Jones, Black Bridge road. 21-10-16-31.

FOR SALE—Twenty fresh milk cows and springers. Martin Paulsen, Rock Co. phone. 23-10-14-31.

FOR SALE—Pure bred yearling Duroc Jersey boar. Austin Bros., Route No. 6. 21-10-15-31.

FOR SALE—Full blood Jersey Bull. Calif. Rock Co. telephone 5595-4. 21-11-14-31.

HARDWARE

JEWELL BASE BURNERS price $15. Radiant Home Coal Stove $15.00. Favorite Base Burners $15, on easy payments. Talk to Lowell. 14-10-16-31.

FARM IMPLEMENTS

FOR SALE—De Laval cream separator with full stock of repairs. Nitcher Implement Co. 20-10-12-31.

AUTOMOBILES

FOR SALE—Overland touring car, driven less than 3,000 miles. At a bargain. Five-passenger Ford, cheap. Both cars in first class condition. Pierson's Garage. 18-10-15-31.

WANTED—Used Ford car in exchange for motorcycle, about 12 K in as good as new. Would exchange for good electric piano. G. W. Hathaway, Spring Green, Wis. 6-10-12-41.

FOR SALE—Ford Touring car, fully equipped. Seven passenger Mitchell just overhauled, in fine condition. 1916 Buick, run about 500 miles. 1915 Buick, self-starter and shock absorbers. Reasonable offer will take any of these cars. For further information call Clinton Motor Service Co., or Janesville, new phone 183. 10-12-Tues-Thurs-Sat.

FARMERS, ATTENTION

FOR SALE—16 H. P. Advance steam engine, 14 H. P. Altman-Taylor steam engine, No. A. 2 Val City sifter, 10 H. P. gas engine. Nitcher Implement Co. 60-10-12-61.

MOTORCYCLES

MOTORCYCLES AND BICYCLE REPAIRS. Knives and scissors sharpened. Saws filed. Go-carts, retired. C. H. Cox, Corn Exchange. 37-11-20-20-41.

BICYCLES

HIGH GRADE BICYCLES. C. H. Cox 45-12-30-41.

PREMO BROTHERS for Bicycles. 48-11-29-41.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Cameo ring Thursday evening, near the corner of Locust and Pleasant Streets. Please return to Gazette Office. 25-10-15-21.

LOST—Gold job between Oakland Ave. and Myers Theatre. Liberal reward if returned to Myers Theatre. 26-10-16-21.

LOST—Small package containing merchandise. Finder please return to Gazette Office. 25-10-14-31.

LOST—A wrist watch on South Jackson street, around corner of Holmes street. Leave at Gazette, 25-10-13-41.

MISCELLANEOUS

START YOUR FIRE with charcoal. 20c per sack. Talk to Lowell. 27-10-13-31.

FIFTY CENTS PAID for each letter telling of success obtained through the use of Gazette want ads. A clipping of adv. or the approximate date must accompany each letter. Gazette Ad. Dept. 27-10-16-41.

I HAVE BARGAINS in used motor cycles including a 1914 electric equipped Indian, run less than 150 miles, looks like new, for $175. It will be worth while to call or write if interested. W. C. Davis, 506 W. Main St. 27-10-11-14-41.

SILVER FILLS KNIVES sharpened on short notice, prices reasonable. Alvin and Heller, 65 So. River. 27-10-3-14-41.

ALL KINDS OF HIDES TANNED and made into fur. Robes lined. Prices lowest. Sadler, Court Street bridge. 27-10-14-41.

JANESVILLE HOUSEWRECKING CO. We have some extra good bargains in stoves and furniture. 56 So. River St. Both phones. 27-9-27-14-41.

OUR POWER CIDER mill open Tuesday, Fridays and Saturdays. C. A. Reimer, Clinton, Wis. 29-9-21-41.

ASHES HAULED, sand and gravel delivered. Henry Kayser, New phone Blue 797. Old phone 1803. 27-9-12-41.

REAL ESTATE

Loans and Insurance.

J. E. KENNEDY

Sutherland Bldg. Janesville, Wis.

Dooley & Kemmerer

For Exchange: Two modern houses in Aurora, Ill., well located and in first class condition.

Rock Co. phone 12. Old phone 62.

RICHARD S. G. CALDWELL

PATENTS

Trade Marks and Copyrights

Grand 2005. 815 Majestic Bldg. Milwaukee.

PERFUMES TOILET WATERS, TOILET NECESSITIES

Come in and try our new lines of the finest goods shown. See the new novelties just received; prices reasonable.

BADGER DRUG CO.

FARMERS, ATTENTION!

We will bale your hay at the following prices: over twenty tons, at $1.25; under twenty tons, at $1.50. Can bale from 20 to 25 tons per day.

KENNEDY & SON

Footville, Wis.

Read the want ads every day. What you are looking for may be here.

Want ads buy and sell.

AUCTION DIRECTORY.

The Gazette will publish free of charge in this column the dates of auctions scheduled for the near future. Auctioneers and owners are requested to mail their dates to the Auction department.

Nov. 18.—John Wright, Milton, W. T. Dooley, auctioneer.

Oct. 19.—Fred C. Gray, Milton Jct. R. F. D. W. T. Dooley, auctioneer.

Oct. 19.—D. J. Morris, Clinton, R. F. D. W. T. Dooley, auctioneer.

OCT. 20.—Mrs. J. Osterman, 5 miles S. E. of Janesville, on Shopiere road. W. T. Dooley,

AN APOLOGY To the Telephone Girls

We did not realize that the Janesville public were so intensely interested on the subject of Life Insurance. "Central" is hereby excused from further duties. We would ask that you kindly refer all calls in the future to "Wemple."

ARE YOU INSURED? CALL CENTRAL!

SEE
HARRY E. WEMPLE, General Agent

THE CENTRAL LIFE

GUARANTEED POLICIES—MEN AND WOMEN
Ages 15 to 65—Five, Ten, Fifteen, Twenty and Twenty-Five Year Plans

CASH

IF YOU LIVE
IF YOU DIE
IF YOU QUIT
IF DISABLED

EXPERT ADVICE—A SQUARE DEAL

OFFICE, JACKMAN BUILDING, ROOM 213

PHONES—Office, Bell 301; Residence, Bell 1182, Rock County 1058 Red

RUSSIAN SITUATION EXPLAINED IN FULL

OPENING OF DARDANELLES WILL MEAN ADDITIONAL STRENGTH TO RUSSIAN ARMY.

ONLY NEED MUNITIONS

Effect of Czar Assuming Command of Army and Navy is Questioned.
Russians as Unit Will Fight to Last.

(By Associated Press.)

Athens, Oct. 16.—A distinguished military authority of one of the allied powers, who has just completed a stay of several months in Russia, with the imperial army, has furnished the Associated Press with a summary of the situation at the time when the emperor of Russia took personal command of the land and naval forces of the empire.

"It is useless to deny the gravity of the situation in Russia," the officer in question said, "but it would be quite as erroneous to regard Russia's position today as desperate, or even as one of imminent danger. The morale of the Russian forces is absolutely untouched by the long series of retreats. The Russian people are for the war to a man, and every defeat has served only to confirm them in their stubborn determination to drive every German from Russian soil. Were the government to undertake to make a separate peace for Russia now, it would have to face a spontaneous and flaming insurrection in all parts of the country.

"This is only one side of the medal, however. The change in the supreme command of the imperial armies has had its drawbacks. The Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievich was never a great tactician, nor did he ever pretend to be one. But he had the confidence of his officers and the absolute faith of his men. The latter the emperor will also have—perhaps even to a greater extent than his great uncle—for the emperor of all the Russias is almost a religious figure to the average Russian. But how much confidence he will inspire in his officers is another matter. They know when Nicholas Nikolaievich said a thing he meant it. He was like a rock in his decisions, and withal fundamentally just and of open mind. His officers could depend upon him, and they did depend upon him. And it had an excellent effect throughout the army.

"Believes in Peace.

"With the emperor the Russians fear it may be different. In the first place, he is not only a soldier, but he is a very strong advocate of world peace. He has retained confidence in former Minister of War Soukhomlinov in whom certainly no one else has any confidence and who is generally regarded in Russia as an incompetent who, with Rasputin, has had a very sinister influence on the emperor.

"The emperor himself, also, recalled to office when, with much difficulty he had finally been got rid of, Soukhomlinov, who now occupies the most important post in the empire—that of the Ministry of Communications, and when instead of planning to transport arms and munitions to armies in desperate need of them, he is intent upon working out nationalist theories of his own of Russia for the Russians. In place of accepting a very favorable American offer to erect factories in Russia for the reassembling of American war materials by those familiar with the work, Soukhomlinov insisted on having the work done by Russians totally unfamiliar with it, in factories which the Russians took ten times as long to construct as the Americans would have required.

Financial Situation.

"On the financial side of the situation is almost as bad as the military. P. I. Bark, is a man of no very signal ability who knows enough, however, to be guided largely by his French and British colleagues. But Rasputin, the head of the state bank, has given rise to no little criticism of his capacity in Russia by his insistence on guarding the gold reserve of the empire intact whatever happens to Russian exchange.

"It is the emperor's willingness to keep men like these in office under present critical conditions which has filled the intelligent Russian with apprehension at the prospect of his active participation in military affairs at this uncertain juncture. No one in Russia is ignorant that the emperor takes his traditional position as the father of his people with almost devout seriousness. It is scarcely possible to conceive of what unexpected action his conviction that he is called to be a second St. Vladimir may lead him. His intentions are admitted to be excellent. But Russia could do with a little less exalted purpose and a little more practical efficiency.

"The same may be said of the Duma. With the most patriotic intentions in the world of lending the aid of the defense of the empire, its members raised, at a crisis when nobody has time to consider them, the complex and embarrassing questions of internal reform. To open the discussion of the advisability of a responsible ministry when plainly every thought is necessary to the national defense, seems almost absurd. But that is precisely what the Russians let the Duma do, and by permitting it, succeeded in placing the emperor in a position which threatens to jeopardize his personal popularity at the moment when it is perhaps the most valuable asset the government possesses.

Dangers to Russia.

"From a military standpoint, there are two great dangers to Russia today. The first lies in a continued and successful German drive on Petrograd; the second is a drive in the opposite direction, with a view to opening a way through Russia to the Black sea, to re-establish the broken communications with the Ottoman empire. Both are regarded as most unlikely of success even if attempted; but both must be considered in weighing the present situation in Russia.

"It is scarcely probable that the Russian armies will begin to receive in sufficient quantities the small arms and munitions they lack much before November even if they were ready to assume any serious offensive work before the first of December.

"Meanwhile the defensive retreat must go on. Gen. Rousski, who is looked upon as one of the ablest military commanders of the empire, has the defense of Petrograd in hand. The important defensive works which he has caused to be constructed about Pskov are thought to be as nearly impregnable as any entrenchments have proved in this war. His line, facing almost south, also serves to threaten the German communications into Russia and to render any such further advance dangerous.

"In this respect, therefore, the Russian situation may be regarded as satisfactory. The danger of the fall of Petrograd should not be belittled. Petrograd is almost essential to the Russians, not on account of any sentimental reason connected with its being the capital, but because three-fourths of the industries directly connected with supplying the troops are located there, and their loss would be a blow from which it would be difficult for the Russian troops to recover.

Southern Situation.

"On the south the situation is less defined. It is evident that if Constantinople falls and the allies are able to rush arms and munitions in large quantities to the Russian forces, the situation of the Germans will be most serious. Over and over again I have noted that whenever an important shipment of munitions has been made to any sector of the Russian line, the retreat has promptly stopped in that sector, a slow but certain advance has begun, and long trainloads of prisoners have begun to come through from that part of the front. It is common opinion in Russia, based upon a great deal of experience, that when the Russian is anywhere nearly equally equipped with the German now doing the fighting on the Russian front, the Russian is not only able to stop the German, but to push him back. I presume that this is on account of the fresh troops which are constantly being sent into the Russian lines, while to judge from the prisoners the Russians have taken, the opposing German troops are neither young nor very well trained, as a rule.

"As, then, the opening of the Dardanelles means the supplying of sufficient arms and munitions to the whole Russian army without the long delays now inevitable, it would seem plain that the Germans must do everything in their power to prevent the defeat of the Turks and the fall of Constantinople. Certainly this is Russian opinion. Moreover, it is believed in Russia that the only possible way to accomplish this end is for Germany to re-establish, somehow, her line of communications with the Dardanelles.

German Courses.

"To achieve this the Russians figure that the Germans may follow one of these courses: They can drive through Serbia to Bulgaria and re-attack Turkey. But this must be done at once or the snows in the Serbian mountains and the equinoctial rains will render it impossible. The second possibility is a German drive down the valley of the Danube to Odessa. This is regarded in Russian as possible, but a very desperate expedient, for any German attempting it would have the Roumanians behind it—which in view of the present attitude of Roumania toward the central empires, would scarcely be wise.

"As in both of the first two contingencies the Roumanians would have to be reckoned with, the Russians consider the third possible course for the Germans to be the most likely one. So long, they say, as Roumania must fight if Serbia is attacked at Orsova, and would probably fight if Bessarabia were invaded, why should not the Germans deal with the Roumanians directly, at once, and try to break through the Black sea by the shortest and most practicable route, namely across Roumania from Brasso by way of Predeal to Galatz and the mouth of the Danube? This is, indeed, what the Russians expect their opponents to do, possibly at the same time driving down the Danube towards Odessa.

"While not perhaps at imminent peril, certainly this plan constitutes a very serious danger for Russia. Cut off from supplies of Constantinople, or by a German domination of the Black sea through a seizure of Galatz or Odessa, Russia's position would be grave indeed—a fact which every intelligent Russian fully recognizes.

ROOKIES WORK HARD; LAST WEEK IN CAMP

JOHN J. O'CONNOR TELLS OF STRENUOUS PROGRAM AT FORT SHERIDAN CAMP.

ROUT ENEMY AT NIGHT

Recruits Dress and Assemble in Two Minutes When Called Out Unexpectedly—Break Camp Tomorrow.

John J. O'Connor, a Janesville young man, who is one of the "rookies" at the Fort Sheridan military training camp for citizen soldiers, writes another interesting letter to the Gazette telling particularly of the strenuous program for the last week which closes on Sunday. All of the five hundred men in training are now disciples of preparedness, says O'Connor in his letter which follows:

Fort Sheridan, Ill., Oct. 13, 1915.
To the Editor, Janesville Daily Gazette.

Col. Nicholson, commandant of the military training camp, outlined a very strenuous program for the last week of the service. Tuesday marked the close of the last day of target practice. The weather has been excellent, and today was the first time rain interfered with the regular courses. Due to the rigid instruction by competent officers, rapid progress has been made on the rifle range during the past week and the average scores are far above those of the ordinary militia companies.

We have had nine afternoons of special work. The mornings have been devoted to regular infantry work and the rest of the day to the various courses. The following divisions were made: Advanced infantry, cavalry, signal corps, machine gun corps, and topographical corps. In all the special work the men receive instruction from regular officers in the different branches. During the drill periods the recruits take one place of the regular soldiers. Those men who chose the cavalry and artillery were very glad, indeed, to hear the bugle blow recall for the end of their daily work as there is not much pleasure in riding some of the hard-backed cavalry horses or trying to find a soft spot between the rivets on top of an artillery caisson going over three foot bumps.

Great excitement prevailed last night in camp. We had just retired for the night when a quick succession of shots alarmed us. The call "to arms" was sounded. It took our company exactly two minutes to dress and assemble. The entire regiment was turned out and a series of formations included. Finally, after driving off the enemy, we went back to camp. A great many men slept in their clothes for fear of another alarm.

Today several companies were detailed to guard a wagon train going from Lake Forest to Glenview. We were attacked by a superior force and despite our best efforts our wagon train was captured, twenty wagons and three auto trucks, and we, very luckily, escaped.

Tomorrow, Thursday, we are to enter the camp and return at Lake Bluff, the naval training station. Then we will march back a distance of ten miles. We will be under full pack and ammunition. This will mean a total weight of 85 pounds to each man. Regular infantry must average fifteen miles per day and as it is planned we will have a good asternoon's work.

On Friday we are to engage the naval marines in combat during the day. During the night we will be surprised in our trenches by the marines. This will be a night engagement and the marines will land by boats and be protected by gunboats. This work will be in addition to the field combat which takes place during the day.

Saturday will be the last big day. A combat is scheduled for the morning work, which includes the regiment's withdrawal from action. In the afternoon will be regimental inspection and a great parade and review.

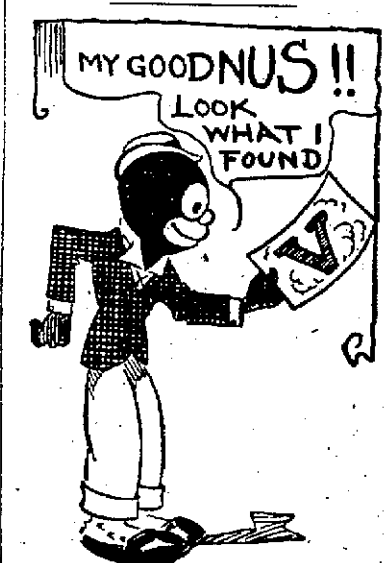

The camp will close Sunday morning when we will be mustered out and turn in our equipment. Everyone is regretting that the close is so near. The field is so large and it seems as if we have only started. It takes four to six weeks to train raw troops to march along the road without getting in each other's way. It takes a year of actual fighting to turn them into the Gazette telling particularly of the soldiers. So, then, a small inkling of the problem of training a volunteer army of 1,000,000 men may be ascertained.

We five hundred, who have been training here this past month, have become disciples of preparedness by the sacred love of our country. We will do our best to spread the truth of our army's inefficiency and our false idea of safety. Yet, there is no question that even if the American people are convinced of their untenable position, we will go along in our accustomed manner. It is only by cold-blooded experience that the United States will learn the lesson of preparedness. Not that the United States should be a military nation. This thought is absolutely opposed to our idea of democracy and the principles on which our forefathers founded our country. We must, however, be strong enough to make other nations think twice before seeking our enmity and in case of trouble be able to enforce our demands. This condition the United States is not in today. The old maxim of General Washington: "In times of peace prepare for war," is just as true in 1915 as in 1795.

JOHN J. O'CONNOR.

Perseverance Best.

Perseverance is more prevailing than violence, and many things which cannot be overcome when they are to gether yield themselves up when taken little by little.—Plutarch.

Whitewater News

Whitewater, Oct. 16.—Rev. N. C. A. Garrison will be in Chicago Sunday, where he will preach in St. Paul's church both morning and evening at the annual mission festival.

Several people have been disturbed over a biting dog on the streets. Thursday evening one of the normal boys was attacked and bitten quite badly.

The normal faculty gave their annual reception last evening to the students of the school. Mrs. L. R. Howard entertained the company with a few solos, which delighted all. Dancing followed and later in the evening some time was spent in giving school yells, etc. Refreshments were served and all had a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fryer are in Cleveland, Ohio, visiting their son John and family.

Mrs. L. J. Hawes of Maquoketa, Iowa, is spending a month with her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. E. Hawes.

Mrs. Thomas Paul and daughter of Chicago are visiting a few days with their aunt, Mrs. J. J. Starin.

The American Milk company is building a large addition to the condenser. The structure is being put up on the old iron covered part of the old paper mill and part of it will be two stories high. The additional space will be used as a condenser for their product to the retail trade. It is expected that the plant will be built, the machinery installed and in operation by December 1st. This department will employ about six additional men.

While working with the cement gang at the condenser Thursday, Arthur Lowery was quite badly hurt when a heavy dumping shovel was suddenly lowered, knocking him unconscious for an hour.

Quite a number from here attended the baseball game at Edgerton yesterday.

Coach W. E. Schrieber was at Plattville Friday to see the normal school team of that city play the Oshkosh normal eleven. It gave him an excellent chance to get a line on the two rival teams for normal honors.

Captain Roland Lindbaum is recovering from a serious attack of tonsillitis, which kept him out of the store for ten days.

Miss Minnie Christenson has been seriously ill for several weeks with a mysterious kind of poisoning.

A free supper was given to the parishoners of St. Luke's church last evening at Guild Hall, and one hundred and seventy-five were served. A program was given afterwards, consisting of a violin duet by Misses Gladys Gars and Margaret Winn, accompanied by Miss Wegner and Phil Trautmann; and a reading by Miss Pearl Newell.

Evansville News

Evansville, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Frank S. Frost very pleasantly entertained twelve ladies at a five course luncheon Thursday, the afternoon being spent in playing cards.

Twenty-nine friends of Oliver Colman night, the event being his nineteenth birthday. All report a pleasant time.

The members of the W. R. C. very pleasantly surprised Mrs. Charles Benson at her home Thursday evening. A delightful social evening, resulted. Mrs. Benson leaves today for her new home at Cameron.

A new club was organized last week in the Tupper district, and will be hereafter known as the "Help A Bit" club. The initial meeting was held in the school house, at which time Miss Grace Hall was elected president. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Frank Bullard, one week from Thursday.

Mrs. Clint Moore and grandson, Leonard, have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore at Chetek.

R. L. Johnston of Reedburg was a business visitor here yesterday.

Marlin Wilder went yesterday to Delavan, where he has purchased a moving picture business.

Walter Spear of Friendship, is visiting local friends this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Lyle Hatfield and baby of Burnett are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hatfield of this city.

Theo. Jackson attended the baseball game at Edgerton yesterday.

Miss Barbara Pearsall of Madison, is visiting her parents over Sunday.

R. M. Richmond was a Janesville business visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Sanders has returned to Madison after a brief visit with local relatives.

Mrs. F. M. Ames of Brooklyn, was an Evansville shopper yesterday.

Mrs. Joe Millsap of Brooklyn, was an Evansville shopper Friday.

Mrs. F. Defendorf returned yesterday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. W. Campbell, in Madison.

Rev. D. Q. Grabill, V. A. Astell, Dr. F. E. Colony, Dr. E. E. Denison and R. M. Richmond motored to Janesville Thursday night.

Joseph Blake is reported very ill. Charles Benson was a Janesville visitor yesterday.

Miss Beth Baker of Madison was here Thursday night to attend "The Servant in the House."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyme and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tupper motored to Janesville yesterday.

Miss Margaret Gilmore, supervisor of music at South Milwaukee, and Miss Frankell Wade, physical training instructor of Janesville, were recent guests of Miss Lulu Van Patten of this city.

Mrs. Effie Adamson of Tacoma, Wash., who has been visiting Mrs. F. E. Colony and family, has gone to Oshkosh for a visit before returning to her home in the west.

At the regular annual supper and business meeting of the Congregational church the following officers were elected: W. J. Clark, trustee for three years, chosen to succeed himself; R. D. Hartley, trustee for three years, to succeed himself; treasurer, R. D. Hartley, re-elected; secretary of the society, H. A. Blakely, re-elected. The reports of the different departments and societies in the church showed the past year a very satisfactory one, and the church in a flourishing condition.

Lost Curly Are Found.

In a picture show at a Madison street theater one evening a little girl and her mother were seated near me. A comic picture was on, showing a lady "making up" with paint, powder, false hair, etc. The climax came when the interested little girl cried out: "Oh, mamma, there's the curly you lost at Aunt Bell's party. Where do you 'posse she found 'em?"—Chicago Tribune.

Almost everything wanted are found advertised in Gazette want ads. Read them and see.